Hastings hopefuls spent $33,000 on vote getting

That new political trend to personal confrontations and confabs hasn't cut the cost of getting the message across to the voters.

Talk may seem cheap, but despite the new personalized style of campaigning, it still costs old-fashioned money to get a message across.

There's no doubt about it that getting the message across is still the most expensive part of the campaign, said Mr. Ellis's campaign manager, Gerry Brennan.

He estimated about a third of his team's budget was spent on press and radio. "Even at a time when campaigns are supposed to have some more sophisticated, personalized confrontations and so on, you still have this big outlay on advertising and promotion," he said.

Despite changing trends and a lessening of the hoopla of former times, he believed the necessity for such traditional promotions would continue.

Mr. Ellis agreed about the sizeable amounts spent. "It's a lot of money—but I still don't want to see government-supported campaigns," he said.

He said, "Possibility of public funds being used to finance elections becomes topical from time to time. It's a lot of money—and it's not going to get any cheaper."

There are some ways expenses could be curtailed, he said.

Major expense factor appears to be advertising—anything from radio spots, newspaper space to signs, buttons and balloons.

For advertising the Folliwell Liberal runner-up spent $19,287; Jack Ellis, Progressive Conservative, $12,368; Elridge Brethour, New Democratic Party, $1,557.

Young bowlers hold tournament

For bowling centres belonging to the Bowling Association of Canada, this is the 10th year of the Youth Bowling Council's Four Steps to Stardom. The four steps are:

1. League Qualifying Round; 2. Zone Round; 3. Provincial Round; 4. National Round.

If only a singles bowler is entered, the bowler recording the highest pinfall for the 8 game qualifying round based on flat total pinfall, bowled with the league, must be the singles representative.

The Junior Boy Division (not 15 years of age on Sept. 1, 1972) was the only one which had a full contingent complete the 8 game qualifying round.

Ricky Clements with the high average of 191 and 8 game total of 1623 is the singles representative. The team with their 8 game scores is 1. Rodney Bush 157; 2. Terry McGee 130; 3. Rodney McKeown 130; 4. Robby Clements 120; 5. Paul Sca 117.

Presbyterial U.C.W. meets in Belleville

Trinity United Church, Napanee, had a near record attendance of about 270 at the annual meeting of Belleville Presbyterial United Church Women on Thursday, January 25. President Helen Sexsmith gave the call to worship, greetings were brought by Mrs. W. Goodman, 1st Vice President of Trinity U.C.W. and by Mrs. C. Thompson, President of Bay of Quinte Conference U.C.W., who announced the following events: U.C.W. Conference Annual, Kingsview, United Church, Oshawa, April 24 and 25. U.C.W. School at Quin-Mo-Lac, Sept. 7, 8, and 9. Conference bus trip to United Nations Seminar, New York, June 4-8.

Worship service with the theme, "Weighed and Wanting," was conducted by Mrs. Blakely and Mrs. Adams of Concession U.C.W. Literature presented by Mrs. Guy Huxley and music by Mrs. J. Harrison were also enjoyed.

Guest speaker, Rev. Joseph Price, Executive Secretary of Bay of Quinte Conference, spoke on "The Spirit of Saskatchewan." "What was this Spirit of Saskatchewan which is so difficult to describe and explain, this new openness, new freedom, trust and love that permeated the General Council last August? It was more than the perfect weather, the fellowship, the western welcome. Something unexpected and exciting was going on, as shown in the style of the Council, in the music. Then we realized it wasn't a something but a Someone—God Himself in our midst." So spoke Mr. Price in his opening remarks. He went on to draw a parallel between the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost and the coming at Saskatoon, At Pentecost the disciples were obeying Jesus' command—they were all together, they prayed broke bread, sang hymns, waiting for the promise, So in Saskatoon they were together for long days of work, hoping to complete a long agenda, doing routine work when the Holy Spirit came to Saskatoon in August last summer, just as real as the first day of Pentecost. We make two mistakes in our attitude to the Holy Spirit, we think of him as "it", a thing not a person. Also we associate him with quiet meditation, to soft dreamy music—vagueness and obscurity, while in the Bible God's spirit is always dynamic, powerful, active, breaking through to change the ordinary to the extraordinary. Jesus' ministry began with the

FISH HUTS LINE THE TRENT

With cold weather, yet a lack of snow, ice fishing is one of the few remaining outdoor winter sports. Many ice shacks have been set up on the Trent River west of Stirling, along the Glen Ross River road. No word of any large catches has been received from any fishermen yet.

BROWNIE NEWS

Although you may not read much about Brownies in the local media, we are very much alive and active in Stirling Senior School every Tuesday night, in fact we are so alive, at times it's necessary for the three Leaders to wear earmuffs.

We total 23, mostly new Brownies. On January 23, 1973 we held our enrolment. Thirteen girls were received into Brownieland, and several others received their second year stars. We had 15 guests in attendance, and a delicious lunch supplied by the mothers and served by the new Brownies.

We are making $3 favours for Valentine's Day for the Belleville General Hospital. This will be our project for the next two weeks. If there is someone in the area available with knowledge of Macramé, we would be grateful for instructions. "Till we meet again, 'Lend a Hand."

Senior Citizens hold meeting

There was a fair attendance at Senior Citizens on Thursday. The meeting opened with the singing of "The Queen".

Pres. John Kane was in charge and expressed sorrow in the loss of one of our very popular members (Lloyd Davy). Our sympathy is extended to the family in their bereavement. We are happy to report that Ada Bush who underwent surgery in Belleville Hospital recently is doing nicely.

The prize winners at euchre were Madge David, and Fred Heasman, dis ole Scribe tied with Fred but lost out in the draw. Other prize winners were Dorothy Ross and Rose Hoard. A tasty lunch was served by Amy Schram, Margaret Ward, Mame Morton and Edna Sharpe. Fanny Kane presented John with a flaming birthday cake and we all helped John eat it, (good too).

People are funny—when it gets cold here they rush to where it's warm. When it's warm here they rush to the lake where it's cool. About now George and Fanny Kane are basking in the Florida sun. We believe that Gordon Bailey is also down yonder in the corn field.

CURLERS AT WORK

Gravenhurst camp unique prison

A man or woman who has gone wrong in life and who go straight if given treatment and rehabilitation training, rather than regimentation and punishment. That's the opinion of inmates and a citizen's committee participating in Beaver Creek Correctional Camp near Gravenhurst, Ont.

In an article in the current United Church Observer, freelance journalist Shirley Whittington reports inmates and outside helpers have "made Beaver Creek a bright break-out from the gloom/dreadful spiral of crime leading to jail leading to more crime."

"Beaver Creek inmates, hand-picked from Kingston or Joyceville prisons, work at jobs in nearby towns. Some go home on weekends. Five manage a ski chalet on a profit-sharing basis. Director Don MacKenzie says, 'We consider ourselves the most progressive camp in Canada.'"

"Such enlightened attitudes support and encourage the reform programs proposed by former Solicitor General Pierre Goyer, Commissioner Raul Faguy and the Canadian Penitentiary Service," says Mrs. Whittington, but warns that they won't succeed without help.

She says that purely punitive prisons are expensive - $7,000 to $8,000 yearly per man - and they don't work. (Eighty percent of the men imprisoned will be back). Rehabilitation, on the other hand, saves money for the taxpayers, writes Mrs. Whittington, who says that the new theory is to treat a prisoner like a man and he won't have to come back.

She applauds the steps already taken to restore a man's dignity and promote responsible citizenship through a pass system which allows inmates to work or study in the community. "Convict committees, like the one at Beaver Creek, are being set up. In many cases, the men are paid for the work they do."

PUBLIC REACTS TO FAILURE
Public criticism of the pass system is attributed by one Provincial Court judge to a reaction against "permissiveness" in our modern society. "The cry is for a return to the woodshed," he said, and claimed that the public reacts to the failures without knowing the facts.

The facts, according to The Observer article, are that only two of the 617 prisoners granted leave for Easter 1972 failed to return. Among 200 others given 6,000 leaves in recent years, there have only been 12 minor violations. (The pattern is apparently continuing as Solicitor General Warren Allmand said recently that only five of 1,380 prisoners who received leaves from Federal Penitentiaries during the 1972 Christmas season failed to return.)

OTHER STEPS
While there are a number of rehabilitative prisons like Beaver Creek across Canada, Mrs. Whittington underlines the need for more small prisons, communities and "extensive training and re-training for guards, so that they look on themselves as healers, not keepers."

She also suggests help for inmates in handling money, and acceptance on the part of business men for the ex-prisoner as an employee.

THE PRISONER'S VIEW
In a companion article in the same issue of the Observer, James S. Dutton, Jr., who has spent the last 10 years in prison, tells what it is like to be behind bars and what people can do to help men like him.

"Once the iron gate clangs shut behind a man walking into prison he ceases to function as a human being. Or so society seems to indicate by its indifference," he says.

Most of what is missing in penal reform, in Dutton's opinion, is "simple contact in meaningful variety. The community is isolated from the inmate, the inmate himself is cut off. Find a way to bridge this gap," he says, because "contact with the outside world is vital to a man's sanity and to his rehabilitation."

Compensation talk
(This series deals with various aspects of the Workmen's Compensation in Ontario. Reader comment and questions are invited.)

ACCIDENT PREVENTION
Medical treatment, cash benefits and vocational rehabilitation assistance immediately available to anyone injured on the job, provide Ontario's work force with protection which in extent and quality of treatment is recognized around the world as one of the best furnished under any Workmen's Compensation system.

Prime objective, is to have an accident affect the normal routine of the workman and his family as little as possible to permit him, as early as feasible, to carry on as if the accident had not occurred.

"...as if the accident had not occurred!"
Obviously this would represent the ultimate achievement in handling any given case. Striving for such a goal leads logically to the Ontario Workmen's Compensation Board's long term, vigorous commitment to programs of accident prevention and safe practice promotion. These safety education and training activities are expertly conducted by Safety Associations formed under the Compensation Act, and represent every industry throughout the province.

These associations are: Construction Safety Association of Ontario; Electrical Utilities Safety Association of Ontario; Farm Safety Association of Ontario; Forest Protection Association; Prevention Association; Hospital Accident Prevention Department; Industrial Accident Prevention Association; Mines Accident Prevention Association; Ontario Pulp and Paper Makers' Safety Association; Transportation Safety Association.

These nine associations responsible for development and implementation of accident prevention and safe practice programs tailored to guarding against potential hazards

Painless Dental Work Possible

Ontario's dentists have an encouraging message for their patients during Dental Health Week, Feb. 4-10:

Painless dentistry is almost here. The old image of the dentist as the man who has to inflict pain on his patients while filling or extracting teeth should soon be a thing of the past according to the Ontario Dental Association.

And as a result the number of people who deprive themselves of proper dental care because of fear should drop to a small minority. At present, some estimates put the number of people who are frightened of dentists at about a third of the population. And the tragedy is that this fear was needlessly planted during childhood, dentists say.

Today's adults heard stories from their parents of dental agony in an earlier generation, and many do not realize the tremendous improvements which have taken place.

High-speed drills, improved techniques, and new furniture which eliminates the old "dental office" image have helped patients overcome their fear. And while a visit to the dentist will probably never be a joyful experience early and prompt treatment - before problems become severe - will keep discomfort to a minimum, dentists say.

At the same time, the knowledge that you're taking good care of your teeth should be a sufficient incentive to put up with whatever discomfort remains.

On the horizon, according to dental researchers, are further new techniques which may eliminate the basic causes of dental disease, and hence the need for most fillings and extractions.

In the specific working conditions encountered in related to Board funds, the Board emphasizes, which are derived from a levy on industry and represent indirect drain on taxpayers.

Ontario Workmen's Compensation system not only furnishes the province's workers with protection in the event they are injured, it also endeavours to ensure that the cost of the work which they are as safe and hazard free as modern accident prevention techniques and protective equipment can make them.

To this end the Board's Safety Department works in close co-operation with the Ontario Ministry of Labour, and other government departments which have the responsibility of enforcing safety codes applicable to various job situations, as well as with accident prevention associations, each of which deals exclusively with accident prevention and safe practice in their particular field.

TREMENDOUS TRIFLES
A drink of water at El Alamein turned the tide of the war in North Africa - saved the last-ditch defense of Egypt by the British and started the German retreat. The engagement kept Germany from outflanking Russia and uniting with Japan.

By July 3rd, 1942, the British Eighth Army, having suffered a series of serious setbacks, had retreated to the Alamein line where defenses were not yet finished, so with the death of the Afrika Corps to deal a death blow. It was the last defense for Egypt, fifty miles away.

Three of Rommel's Panzer divisions finally broke through the middle of the line and the Eighth mustered all available armor to plug the breach. Both armies were about evenly matched in that waterless wasteland. The battle continued the next day. Blood-caked British, their tongues parched and dry, quivered in the battle smoke. Weary, red-eyed, they felt that another few minutes and they must retreat. A human body can stand just so much. Both sides reeled in the terrific desert heat.

Then an amazing thing happened! The Panzer tank rolled back across the Alamein line. Immediately eleven hundred German infantry came toward the British with their hands up. The aggressors were surrendering! From the prisoners it was learned that the night before when the Alamein line crumbled they had found a six-inch water line. Without water for 16 hours, they had tapped the pipe and over a thousand men stumbled to their knees and gulped down great draughts. Before they realized their danger, it was too late. It was salt water.

Delirious from the effects, they had gone into the battle next day and only the thought of fresh water at Alexandria kept them moving against the Eighth. The pipe had been laid for one of the tanks of the Alamein line. As was customary, salt water was used for testing. As the defense in that area weren't completed, the Germans found salt water. If they had tapped it a day earlier, they would have found it empty. If they had waited one day, fresh water would have been gushing through it.

Sausage, Sauerkraut and Hops Get Festivals Hopping
by Jack Wilcox

This year in the second week of October more than 300,000 Canadians are going to pow-wow at the biggest pork and beer party the country will ever see.

At least until next year, when it promises to be bigger still. Waterloo County's Oktoberfest celebration, with the focal point at the twin cities of Kitchener and Waterloo is a revelation of what a colorful autumn we can enjoy in Canada, and just how flavourful it can be as well.

Oktoberfest observances can be organized at home with success or one can be undertaken in the community centre to aid the all-fund of the lacrosse or hockey leagues.

The beauty of such a festival is that it is easy to prepare and is easy on the pocketbook.

To make it a party, add draft beer or new apple cider to the traditional German recipes which are so much a part of the original Munich festival in Germany. That's where the whole idea got started.

While Waterloo County's festival is certainly the largest in Canada, it is by no means the only one. In the month of October, festivals featuring sausages, sauerkraut, and beer burst forth in a spirit of goodwill and fellowship throughout the provinces, and, indeed, across Canada.

An old song traced back to 1753 in Lunenburg where the Canadian sauerkraut industry must have had its start goes: Sauerkraut is fine, We ought to know it, For we eat it all the time.

Minimum Wage $1.80

Labour Minister Fern Gindun said today that a campaign would be carried out by the Ministry of Labour to keep the approximately 140,000 employers in Ontario informed on new legislation, programs and directives.

He said the campaign would be designed as a continuing program to improve communications between the Employment Standards Branch and employers in Ontario. The branch is responsible for administering The Employment Standards Act including minimum wages, hours of work, vacation with pay, equal pay for equal work, wage protection overtime, premium rates of pay and terminations.

The initial bulletin to be distributed to all employers in the province later this week, sets out changes in minimum wages that will become effective on February 1. The bulletin also contains a report on interpretations and work for a rate less than the general minimum. He said the policy of the Ontario Government has been to promote more equitable distribution of wages for work performed. For example, he noted that Ontario was the first province to actively promote equal pay for equal work. He said the purpose of the minimum wage is to ensure the highest possible wage rate for low-paid workers while at the same time preventing unemployment among workers due to high labour costs.

Mr. Gindun said an 18-year-old person today has all the rights, privileges and responsibilities of an adult and should not be expected to

He said the purpose of the minimum wage is to ensure the highest possible wage rate for low-paid workers while at the same time preventing unemployment among workers due to high labour costs.

Mr. Gindun said an 18-year-old person today has all the rights, privileges and responsibilities of an adult and should not be expected to work for a rate less than the general minimum. He said the policy of the Ontario Government has been to promote more equitable distribution of wages for work performed. For example, he noted that Ontario was the first province to actively promote equal pay for equal work. He said the purpose of the minimum wage is to ensure the highest possible wage rate for low-paid workers while at the same time preventing unemployment among workers due to high labour costs.

Sausage, Sauerkraut and Hops Get Festivals Hopping
by Jack Wilcox

This year in the second week of October more than 300,000 Canadians are going to pow-wow at the biggest pork and beer party the country will ever see.

At least until next year, when it promises to be bigger still. Waterloo County's Oktoberfest celebration, with the focal point at the twin cities of Kitchener and Waterloo is a revelation of what a colorful autumn we can enjoy in Canada, and just how flavourful it can be as well.

Oktoberfest observances can be organized at home with success or one can be undertaken in the community centre to aid the all-fund of the lacrosse or hockey leagues.

The beauty of such a festival is that it is easy to prepare and is easy on the pocketbook.

To make it a party, add draft beer or new apple cider to the traditional German recipes which are so much a part of the original Munich festival in Germany. That's where the whole idea got started.

While Waterloo County's festival is certainly the largest in Canada, it is by no means the only one. In the month of October, festivals featuring sausages, sauerkraut, and beer burst forth in a spirit of goodwill and fellowship throughout the provinces, and, indeed, across Canada.

An old song traced back to 1753 in Lunenburg where the Canadian sauerkraut industry must have had its start goes: Sauerkraut is fine, We ought to know it, For we eat it all the time.

Put the cabbage in a barrel, Stamp it with your feet, When the juice begins to rise, The Kraut is fit to eat.

Change parole

Amid all the discussion and controversy surrounding the retention or continued abatement of the death penalty in Canada, one major point seems to have been overlooked, at least from most reports.

Aside from the issue of whether to take a human's life in revenge for taking another, what about the present criminal code system of giving a prisoner many years in jail, then allowing him out again in 10 or 15 years just because he has behaved well in prison?

The prospect of death by hanging, electrocution or gas chamber is not pleasant to contemplate, but surely a lengthy sentence in any penal institution must also seem a wasted effort. The criminal may live, but is such a life really living?

If, in their wisdom, our legislators feel that murder, rape and treason are not cause for taking the culprit's lives, that is fine. But should not the people who are attempting to take a life, orderly life, devoid of criminal action, be entitled to more protection than just a few years behind bars. While he may or may not reflect on the atrocity of his act of death, the potential life-taker, at present, knows he can have his freedom in a relatively short time, compared to the complete loss suffered by his victim's family and friends.

Murder first appeared in the first book of the Bible, and has increased comparatively with the population. Cain was sent into exile for his effort, probably a more lasting punishment than being slain himself by the Creator. Were we assured that future murderers were to spend the rest of their natural lives in custody, it might soothe somewhat the anxieties of those who feel abatement of the death penalty is the only answer.

Ask yourself how you would feel, the widow of one of those policemen shot last week in line of duty. Maybe you don't want revenge, but surely natural life behind bars would be a reasonable alternative.

Next year us?

With almost all towns and villages in the surrounding area having held or currently holding carnival activities, the question comes to mind - how about us? Stirling seems to be the only municipality in the area without any winter activity of any kind, except for the regular happenings in curling, hockey and personal endeavors on snowmobile or skis.

Examining the program of the surrounding places, there seems to be nothing planned that would be outside the capability of this village or any of its various clubs and organizations. While we might lack the facilities of some places, with the halls in the village, there would seem to be adequate space to hold these things. The area functions well to put on the annual Fall Fair and Music Festival, but these are basically one-group activities with others helping in some respects. Surely, under the direction of say, the Recreation Committee, we would be able to do something as a co-operative village effort.

Such an effort would first of all show how well local groups could be correlated into a single activity for a brief period, planning such an event would take some time, but with other ideas to draw from, the first one would be relatively simple, and then build on its successes and replace its weaknesses with hopefully better attractions.

Each community needs some function, regardless of size, to give it a little boost in the outside world. Such an event, were it winter or summer, might be just the thing needed here. Surely we have as much talent and potential as our neighbors.

Do You Remember?

25 Years Ago

Breaking out at approximately 12:45 this (Thursday) afternoon, fire destroyed the body and fender shop of W. J. Morton, on Church St., together with tools, equipment and paint, and two cars, one an Oldsmobile Sedan belonging to C.J. Hatton, local merchant. The shop was situated at the rear of the residence and at time of going to press the members of the local Fire Brigade had succeeded in saving the main residence which was divided into several apartments and was for a time seriously threatened. Occupants of the apartments included Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Luery, Mr. R.W. Meiklejohn, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Potter and Mrs. Hugh Morton and son William.

Miss Marion Gravers, of Toronto, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Gravers.

Mrs. J.V. Holt and son, Douglas, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Mills, at Lisle, Ontario.

After weeks of preparation, "Pop" Murray's Fish and Chip Shop has been officially opened in the Hatton Hardware Block, next door to W. Cairns' harness shop.

On Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rodgers entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Searles and Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Heath and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Heath.

An enjoyable day was spent recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Danford in honour of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morley Richardson, of River Valley, who celebrated their 26th Wedding Anniversary on January 20th.

65 Years Ago

Before a large and interested crowd of spectators Stirling Juniors defeated Marjona Juniors in the latter town on Friday last by a score of 5-3. The feature of the game was the work of Seeley (goal) and Grains' lightning dashes. Percy Reynolds made a very impartial referee. The winners line-up was as follows: Goal, P. Seeley, point, A. Labey, cover point, H. Martin, rover, A. Anderson, centre, R. Bell, right and left wings, H. Grain and H. Ward.

A few days ago, Mr. Robert Bamber of the 7th Concession of Sidney, brought to us an apple in good condition which grew in 1906. No special care had been taken of it, as it was put on a shelf in the cellar, where it had remained from the time it was gathered.

A report of the Lakefield Presbyterian church is to hand, showing the good work being done under the pastorate of the Rev. S.S. Burns. The pastor's salary has been increased from $900, to $1,050. Mr. Burns' health and family will be pleased to hear this good news.

The Evangelical Band of Campellville will conduct the service in St. Paul's Methodist Church next Sunday evening. If weather conditions permit, it is intended to make this the opening of a series of revival meetings, in which the pastors and congregations of the Baptist and Methodist churches at Hubble Hill will work together.

Weekly Meditation

CONTRIBUTED BY STIRLING CLERGYMEN

(By Rev. C.E. Staples)

There is much happening in our society today that can embitter people; that can make us hard hearted and turn us into people intent on vengeance. Often the lack of self-restraints causes hardships for others. This is true in our places of work as well as in our homes. Justice that seems to be too good for an offender seems to encourage increased violence; witness the rash of killings of police officers in Toronto. These abuses in our society could quite easily influence us to make us vengeful people. There is the danger that they will turn love for our fellow men into hatred.

There was an occasion in the life of Jesus when he asked his disciples the question, "To whom will I compare the men of this generation?" He answered by saying, "they are like children, seated in the market place; and one group calls to another; we played wedding music for you but you would not dance, we sang funeral songs, but you would not cry." When you read this passage from Luke 7:30-35, there are two messages given by Jesus in helping us to live with one another in the world today. The first is that freedom will be a perilous thing. To be free does not always guarantee that we will do the things that will ensure continued freedom. The greatest tragedy of life is to see a wasted life; to watch a person destroy the beauty of his family life through excessive use of alcohol or by being ensnared in an illicit relationship. To see what could have been or what was meant to have been, without becoming bitter or cruel takes a lot of courage and Christian fortitude. It requires having a fundamental view of life, where, in spite of personal sorrow or grief, one can still see other people as worthy objects of one's love rather than as objects for vengeance. "While we yet sinners, Christ died for us," St. Paul reminds us.

And G.K. Chesterton once wrote, in connection with his own thinking about God's creation of the world and of man, "God had not written so much a poem but rather a play; a play He had planned as perfect, but which had necessarily been left to human actors and stage managers, who had since made a great mess of it." We need to be reminded to use our free will with more awareness of its effect on others and the world and the environment around us. We need God to help us from making shipwrecks of life. We need His insight to prevent us from using our free will to frustrate the nobler things in life happening.

The other important message expressed in Jesus' words to us is the sheer pervasiveness that exists in human nature. He explained it by commenting on how people responded to John the Baptist on the one hand and to himself on the other. As you know, John lived with a hermit's austerity, and people accused him of being a mad eccentric. Jesus, in contrast, lived the life of man, entering into all their activities and He was loved by people, with loving earth's pleasures far too much. At times people can be

Keeping it clean

with Bill Dodds

Throwaway lines...

In the U.S., close to 2.5 billion steel cans will be pulled from municipal garbage by magnets in 16 centres across the country.

That's three times the number reclaimed in 1971. Four markets have been found for the reclaimed metal: The steel industry remelts cans for use in new steel. The copper firms use them to precipitate copper from low grade ores.

Other centres recover 7.5 pounds of tin coating for every ton of steel cans.

Alloy manufacturers use scrap cans with silicon and manganese for melting and casting purposes.

It's developing into a business reclaiming goods that would otherwise disappear for good in the waste stream. But the simplest solution to waste overload is to keep the containers and packages that enclose almost everything we buy from entering the garbage flow.

A task force established by Ontario Ministry of the Environment is well into nine months of intensive study of waste problems. One of the challenges it faces is finding ways to direct goods to a reuse cycle instead of the dead-end path of throwaways.

One area under close examination is beverage containers. When you finish your soft drink, beer, ale, wine or liquor, what happens to the container.

The trend over the past few years has been definitely towards more and more throwaways.

That means, with cans for example, that steel, tin and aluminum are disappearing so perverse or childish in their response to God and life, that they mock everything or they refuse to let anything please them.

And yet it is with this imperfect human self, that God has entrusted the redemption and the salvation of the world. In spite of man's misuse of his own free will, in frustrating God's purpose and in perverting rejecting God, do we see God using force or coercion to make men do His will? God chooses the dangerous way of love. Love does not guarantee that everyone will respond openly to that Love, but it does indicate very clearly to all of us, the way in which God would have people live their lives and in what way people should express themselves to one another.

THOMAS MCCRORY

One time blacksmith in the Stirling district, Thomas James McCrory died Thursday at the Edward Street Manor Nursing Home. He was 91. Born in Ireland, Mr. McCrory had lived at R.R. 2, Stirling, for many years and had been a resident of the village for the past five years. He had been ill for the past two weeks.

Predeceased by his wife, the former Elizabeth McMullen, he is survived by seven sons, Thomas of Scotland, Alexander of Belleville, Samuel of Oak Lake, William of Campbellford, Andrew of Stirling, George of Kingston, and Hubert of Picton.

The funeral was held Saturday from the Hogle Funeral Home, Eatonville, in Stirling Cemetery vault with spring burial in Stirling Cemetery.

Stirling 4-H

The first meeting of the Stirling 4-H Lentsurettes was held in the Stirling Senior gym on Wednesday, Jan. 31, 1973 with 10 girls, four mothers and two leaders in attendance. The election of officers was as follows: President - Rozanne Mofina; vice president - Delani Chyphya; secretary - Anna Marie Jones; treasurer - Heather Sine; press reporter - Kim Lawrence.

Mrs. Seeley gave a brief outline of the work to be done in sewing lounge wear. She stressed the importance of regular attendance and keeping work up to date.

The leaders suggested equipment needed for a sewing box and showed different samples of materials.

The girls are to have their patterns and materials and be ready for work, Wednesday, Feb. 7th. Till then - Happy Stitching.

80th Birthday Party Is Given

Mrs. John Kane, who is a valued life member of River Valley Women's Institute, observed her 80th birthday anniversary on January 21st, 1973. Fanny is the eldest of a family of nine children of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Heasman.

On Saturday evening, Jan. 20th, the Heasman family sponsored a supper party in her honor at the River Valley W.I. Centre. Eighty of the family were in attendance and included her immediate family, her brothers and sisters and nearly all her nephews and nieces. Guests were in attendance from London, Toronto, Belleville, and Johnson City, U. S. A. Her brothers George, James, Fred, Harry and Ed, and her sisters Gertrude Davies, Emma Rowe and Miss Alice Heasman all formed an unbroken chain at this happy gathering.

Fanny was the recipient of a lovely corsage, a guestbook, two money trees from the two family groups and costume jewellery.

Mrs. Cameron Sine provided piano music and her Uncle Fred conducted the sing-song.

A special anniversary cake was served at the close of the delicious supper.

On Sunday afternoon 75 guests visited at the home of John and Fanny on Church Street, Stirling, and signed

Six WI Groups Attend Course

(By Mrs. Percy MacMullen)
The Summary Day for the "Ontario Fruit" senior training Institute course was held Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 31st in Huntington Township Hall, Ivanhoe, with 60 ladies in attendance.

Miss Kate Ann Wahl, Home Economist for Hastings County, welcomed the six groups. Miss Bonnie Lacroix, Specialist, Foods and Nutrition, Home Economics Branch, Toronto, presented the badges to the leaders and assistants, and gave a special message.

The W.I. groups were: Chapmans - Mrs. M. Lambert and Mrs. Lincoln Elliott, Madoc - Miss Ada Adams and Mrs. C.B. Farrow, Pine Grove - Mrs. W.J. Slavin and Mrs. Ivan Clark, Plainfield - Mrs. Maude Harrison and Mrs. Albert Wright.

River Valley - Mrs. Vernon Harry and Mrs. Ernest Carr, Spring Brook - Mrs. Clayton Burditt and Mrs. Myrtle Cassidy.

Four of the groups presented reports of the work by their leaders. Two ladies from Plainfield gave a dialogue and Mrs. Harry Harrison, who was chairman for the afternoon, contributed a ditty to the tune of Jingle Bells.

Liberal strategy was at fault

What members of the Prince Edward - Hastings Liberal Association lacked numbers, they made up for in exuberance at their annual meeting held last night.

Less than 20 showed up for the meeting - much to the disappointment of organizers -- but they spent more than 2 1/2 hours discussing everything from the recent defeat of federal Liberal candidates, alleged bigotry campaigning by Conservatives, return of political patronage, the Liberal image and the election of a new association executive.

Anthony Daicar, returned president of the association, said as he travelled across Canada at the time of the federal elections, he learned that the party itself was not especially disliked, it was the Prime Minister. "But our biggest mistake was strategy. We went out on past performance. People don't believe in the past history. They want to know what we bring to them now."

"We need better co-ordination with Ottawa," Guest speaker, Dr. Ian Wilson, a Cobourg surgeon, who is vice-president of the Liberal Party of Ontario, agreed. Outlining steps for Liberals to take between elections, Dr. Wilson said in the days of the Pearson regime, his minority government was closer to the people. They had to be fully responsive to the people. No way was there legislation without the support of at least one minority group. "Trudeau's was the first majority government since Diefenbaker, 10 years before. He talked of the just society. "Philosophically this was very fine, but they got farther away from the people. They didn't have to listen to minority parties," Dr. Wilson said. He said grassroots Liberals across Canada didn't think to inform the government of the growing dissatisfaction. "They never got together as groups, or complained. We people have to bear a significant measure of the blame for the downside of Liberal popularity."

Farm Income Not So Rosy

"The farm income picture is far from rosy, despite federal government figures showing 1972 as the highest net income year on record," says Bruce Taylor, executive member, Ontario Federation of Agriculture.

Taylor, an Enniskillen beef farmer points out that the average Ontario farmer earned approximately $4,861 last year for his interest-free investment, his and his family's labour, and his management. "The income of farmers must rise. In construction, the average wage was $10,000 last year. In forestry it was $8,170. Between 1961 and 1966, one Ontario farmer went out of business every 3.8 hours. The rate has accelerated until between 1966 and 1971 one farmer left the land every 2.8 hours."

Taylor was part of the OFA delegation which recently presented its annual brief to the Ontario government.

The brief asked for a series of income boosters which include taxing farm land based on its productivity, not solely on market value; government subsidization of farm labour; and abolition of succession duties which impede the transfer of land from one generation to another.

"Farmers need many forms of long-term security. We asked for, and need, land zoned solely for agriculture; health and housing guidelines for intensive livestock production; and licensing of farmers. The OFA has drafted guidelines for licensing in order that bona fide farmers, not corporations or part-time operators, will define the future of farming."

Conservation Authority acquires more property

It is quite some time since we have reported through this column, but as we move forward in 1973 we should have some very interesting news. During this past week we have acquired a property located on Highway 30 about two miles southwest of the Town of Campbellford. This property contains 197 acres and has a highway frontage of 4,850 feet. The property is flat ranch land with a ridge along the east boundary and at the southeast corner has a frontage of approximately 300 feet on the back channel of the Trent River. The property being located in Seymour Township it was fitting that we should name it the Seymour Conservation Authority.

During the year 1972 the Authority acquired four properties on the east side of Front Street which are designated as future parklands for the Trent Green Belt Conservation Authority. We hold options on several other properties in this same designated area which will be exercised in the near future.

Late in the fall we purchased a pair of swans which will be domiciled in our new reservoir in the Village of Warkworth.

The Authority is now awaiting Minister's Authorization to acquire some 150 acres in Cramahe Township, a part of which will be used in conjunction with the Northumberland and Durham Soil and Crop Improvement Association. We will keep you informed as we proceed with this project.

The Township of Haldimand has donated a ten acre area which is situated at Lake Ontario south of Crampton and near Chubb's Point.

This Authority in the lower Trent watershed, including the properties mentioned today, have twelve conservation areas on their inventory. We have now initiated master development plans for all of

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

Standing straight and tall in his new crocheted suit is Davey, almost two years old. He is an Ojibwa Indian child with big brown eyes, black hair and dark skin.

Davey is sturdy, boisterous and very active, apparently in excellent health. But he has a rare hereditary condition, Von Recklinghausen's disease, which is characterized by smooth, coffee-colored spots on face, chest, arms and legs. It has no effect otherwise on him at present but its implications are unknown. However, his natural mother who has the same disease, appears healthy and well.

At present the feeling is that Davey will not be academically minded, although he is alert and responsive to stimulation. He has just discovered the telephone and is always the first to answer it. With his limited vocabulary this may create puzzlement at the other end, but members of his foster family understand and chat away to him while he listens with absorbed attention.

Davey is a vocal boy who laughs a lot, sings to himself and tries to imitate everything said to him. An affectionate youngster, he loves other children. His beguiling personality wins friends quickly but he is timid with new people. He likes men better than women. He has a robust appetite and sleeps well.

Cheerful, noisy, lovable Davey needs loving parents who can accept his medical history without alarm.

To inquire about adopting Davey, please write to Today's Child, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general adoption information, please contact your local Children's Aid Society.

Make Native American Pie With Luscious Yams

Southern cooks are justly famed for their fabulous desserts. Perhaps the most original is Yam Pecan Pie, moist and mellow, with the crunch of pecans for contrast. A native treasure among American desserts, this pie is easy to make, even for a beginner - it's as simple as mashing yams. Now is the time to try your hand with this great dessert. Luscious, sugary-moist, golden yams from North Carolina are in peak supply at market. Make it once, and you'll make it again.
It's irresistible.

To choose good quality yams, look for those that are clean, smooth, well-shaped, firm, with copper-colored skin. Do not refrigerate except after cooking as cold is harmful to this potato.

Yam Pecan Pie
1 cup mashed cooked 4 eggs
fresh yams (3 yams) 1/4 cup dark corn syrup 1/4 cup butter or margarine, 1 teaspoon vanilla softened 1 cup pecans
3/4 cup packed dark brown 1 unbaked 9-inch pastry shell

To prepare yams, bake in 350°F. oven 40 minutes or cook in boiling water to cover for 20 minutes, until soft. Cook, peel, and mash until smooth. Set aside. Cream butter with brown sugar. Beat in eggs one at a time; blend in corn syrup, vanilla and mashed yams. Stir in pecans and turn into unbaked pastry shell. Bake in 400°F. oven for 10 minutes. Refill shell to 350°F. and bake 30 minutes longer, until filling is set and pastry browned. Cool. Garnish with additional pecans and serve with whipped cream or ice cream.
Makes 8 servings.

Farmers Must Help Planning

Ontario cabinet. Hill stressed that land-use planning is primarily planning the future use of farm land.
The OFA asked the Ontario government to commit itself to a long-term land-use plan for all of Ontario. "Planning on a piecemeal basis is dangerous, and runs the high risk of being inequitable when it

Fair Board Has Hydro Problem St. Andrew's Ladies Meet

Members of the Stirling Agricultural Society are facing one problem as they begin another year of planning for Stirling's Fall Fair. They have no hydro.

Kenneth Mumby, last year's president and re-elected for another term in office, was informed by Miss Rosa Spry of the Stirling Public Utilities office that the Ontario Hydro had shut off the hydro leading into the fair grounds. Mr. Mumby said that the hydro sited a need for a complete hydro inspection as the reason for shutting off the hydro. Mr. Mumby has received no direct word from hydro as of yet.

Mr. Mumby said he thought that the hydro felt that the poles and the main line feeding into the buildings are old and need to be replaced.

The members of the Agricultural Society are planning to meet with the Stirling Public Utilities commission, soon, to discuss the possibilities of having the hydro re-instated. If an inspection is needed, the society will be then looking into the possibilities of having the line changed so that it comes in from a short distance. They are hoping to have it brought in from the west corner of the fair grounds from Sidney Township instead of from the north east corner as it presently is.

Both the Agricultural Society executive and the Stirling Fair Lady Directors' executive were re-elected for another term of office. Members of the Society executive include Kenneth Mumby, president; John Sheridan, vice-president; Ralph Jeffs, second vice-president; Mrs. John Sheridan, secretary; and Maurice Clancy, treasurer. Members of the Lady Directors' executive include Mrs. Floyd Armstrong, president; Mrs. Maurice Clancy, first vice-president; Miss Gena Spry, secretary; and Mrs. Malcolm Sharp, treasurer.

Miss Gena Spry was in charge of the worship service. She opened with a meditation on "God's Love is over all," followed by a prayer. Mrs. Ward read the Scripture Lesson from 1st John, chapter 4. Hymn 233, "Love Divine," was sung.

Gena meditated on the scripture lesson using verse 10 and several other verses from the Bible pertaining to Love, making clear that God's Love is the love over us and God's Love is over all in the Bible.

Hymn 447, "O Love that will not let me go," was sung. Gena closed the worship service with a verse.

The roll call was answered with a verse from the Bible with the word Love, by 14 ladies and one visitor. The offering was gathered and dedicated. The minutes of the Jan. meeting were read by Isabel Hutcheon and approved by the president. Treasurer's reports were given. The business part of the meeting followed.

The president introduced Mrs. Haggerty, the guest speaker, who spoke on St. Valentines which fitted in very nicely with "Love," the theme of the meeting. She closed with a prayer, after which Mrs. Boyce presented her with a small gift.

St. James

CWL meets

The first meeting of the New Year was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Meeks on Feb. 8th, with seven members present. Preceding the recitation of the League prayer, mass was celebrated by Father J. F. McGarvey. With Mrs. Stan Meeks presiding, Mrs. John Kerby read the roll call and minutes of the December meeting. Due to the absence of Mrs. John Doran there was no treasurer's report.

Final plans were made for catering to the barn sale in March. As in the past years there will be a St. Patrick's Day card party on March 12, with Mrs. R. LaChapelle taking charge of this.

It was noted that Mrs. Meeks recently attended a meeting in connection with the World Day of Prayer to be held on the 2nd of March.

Noting that Penance is the theme of the February meeting, Father McGarvey said that anything we do in Lent shows considerably more merit. He also urges us now, and especially in Lent to pray for vocations.

Following Father's blessing and closing prayers, lunch was served by Mrs. Meeks, assisted by Mrs. Kerby.

PRESENTED WITH WHEELCHAIR

Wayne McCaughen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCaughen, Stirling, was presented recently with a wheelchair by the Belleville Yarmen Benefit Fund. Wayne is seen here sitting comfortably in his new wheelchair looking at one of his favorite country records.

Families can establish their own private havens

(By Mrs. Olive Marrow)

INTRODUCTION
Wildwood, the setting for this piece, is part of what is still known in this area, as the "Bateman Settlement." Local people seem interested in what we are trying to accomplish in protecting wildlife and conserving the natural beauty of the place. Also, it seems that there are many Bateman family connections in this part of the county.

In September, my husband and I purchased and moved to the old Caldwell property at Bonarlaw. Prior to this, in 1971, we had bought fifty acres of what is now known as Wildwood and since moving to Bonarlaw, have added the additional fifty acres making the full one hundred acre wildlife sanctuary.

All that glitters isn't necessarily gold they say, so don't let the intrinsic value of your cut-over bush or swamp escape you. What you may consider "waste-land", could to another represent a peaceful haven from the hurry and strife of city life. People who buy this type of land discover treasures that to them, cannot be measured in monetary worth.

There are three newspaper clippings on my desk. PROVINCIAL PARKS BECOMING OVERCROWDED...AMERI- CANS BUYING UP ONTARIO VACATION LAND...and a want ad - LAND WANTED - FAST CASH DEAL FOR CUT-OVER LAND, SCRUB BUSH, etc.

With a little foresight and small investment we have done what many others are doing; assured our family of a "place to stand" in Ontario. Waste land - no land is waste where our grandchildren can learn ecology first hand and we can all enjoy the bounteous gifts of the Almighty.

I throw the clippings in the waste basket and smile in anticipation of the summer ahead.

It is early spring and in the dawn of early morning Wildwood waits. The beaver colony have carefully repaired the winter damage to their dam; pond grasses are just emerging above the quiet pond water. The silence is broken as an advance flock of mallards near Wildwood. The pond covers several acres with plenty of cover. The ducks circle and land. They will feed and rest all day and tomorrow will move northward to their summer nesting grounds. A few will stay to raise their young in the sanctuary we have provided for them by posting NO HUNTING signs.

One hundred acres of bush, rock and pond in Radon township, in beautiful Hastings County; this is Wildwood, our wildlife haven. We camp, but we tread softly and leave little trace of our temporary habitation. Animals and birds will not be harmed; tiny tree seedlings, ferns and wild flowers will not be trampled on. Life will go on, even minute insects will live their life cycle or become nourishment for larger creatures.

In the summer, the young frogs will leave the pond to make their way through the grass, jumping in ecstasy at being alive and happily unaware of the large garter snake nearby. The bluebells will fade but the purple-flowering raspberry will compete with the pasture rose for top summer beauty.

Our grandchildren will learn many things at Wildwood. Andrea will try to photograph the "personality kid" of the forest, the saucy blue-jay and to record his raucous song.

Michelle will wait until fall to make her leaf collection; she'll enjoy the red of the maple, golden-yellow of the birch and burnished copper of the oak.

Johnny will slip as quietly as a small boy can, down the bank at the north end of the pond. If he's lucky he'll see Brown Snake sunning his three foot length on the big rock. One noisy step and the nervous old fellow will glide to the protection of the old hollow stump.

Small Karen will find a cut-weed in the grass and gently feel the softness of the woolly leaves and soft yellow bloom. As we explain that the plant is also known as pussy-toes, she'll crush the bloom and discover the lemon smell left on her little fingers.

So, summer passes and it is autumn. The tantalizing odor of beef and vegetable stew bubbling on the campfire permeates the sweet air. Soon supper will be over and dusk will fall. We'll sit beside the glowing fire and listen to the night sounds. The sparrows will quiver their wings in their sleeping arrangements but finally, sleepily settle down.

The muted sound of a pair of wolves sounds from far on the other side of the pond. A late flying flock of ducks disappears behind the trees to spend the night on the pond. At dawn, they'll leave on their long migratory flight south.

We build up the fire toward off the coolness that has started to come from the earth and one of the grandchildren questions: how do the wild ducks know when to fly south?

Another will answer, "I guess God tells them."

Then, "Grandma, is God real?"

I have no need to answer as the others chime in, "Don't be stupid, Course He's real or we wouldn't have all this."

Overhead a bat darts about in search of his meal. In the North Woods a newly awakened owl announces his intentions: "Ready or not, you must be caught..."

The little deer mouse scampers wildly to safety and darkness falls softly on Wildwood. Winter falls and the woods are white and strangely silent except for the tap-tapping of a woodpecker and call of a passing jay. They know it's just a few weeks until Spring's awakening with all its promise of renewed life; and Wildwood waits.

SPRING BROOK UCW meets

A pot luck dinner preceded the regular meeting of the Spring Brook United Church Women. The roll call, "A Fact About India" was answered by 17 ladies.

Mrs. M. Bateman, Pres., opened the meeting with a poem and a brief business period followed. It was announced the World's Day of Prayer would be held March 2nd at 2 p.m.

Products of India made up a quiz presented by Mrs. J. Reid. The winner was Mrs. H.E. Beare. The Flower and Fruit Committee Chairman, Mrs. H. Haslett reported eight cards sent out for January and numerous calls to the sick and shut-ins were reported.

A film, "Towards Self Help in India" was shown by Mrs. J. Thompson. This was a very informative film, followed by a general discussion.

The worship service was in charge of Mrs. G. Williams with the program committee taking part. It helped convey the message of our responsibility to the rest of the world. Mrs. Williams closed with prayer.

In March another pot luck dinner will be held. Everyone is welcome. Do Come!

"A" WATER BOATMAN - Aquatic bugs about half-an-inch long, body slightly flattened. Hind legs long, slender and flattened for swimming, are held at sharp angle to the body, resembling oars of a small boat. Boatmen feed on small organisms on mud bottoms of marshes and ponds. Often gathering in large numbers, their bodies, surrounded by air bubbles glisten like quicksilver as they move about. They can fly well.

"B" WATER STRIDER - Long legged and slender this semi-aquatic insect is able to skim and dart about on the surface of the water. Food is aquatic organisms and tiny insects, taken on or just beneath the surface. The largest water striders will measure slightly over half-an-inch in body-length.

Teachers in other parts of Ontario now believe that Hastings county is "the Mecca of Ontario," the province's top teacher said last week.

He was Daryl Hodgins, president of the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation, in Belleville for the annual assembly of District 19 of OSSTF.

Mr. Hodgins said that the efforts of Hastings county board of education's chairman Mac Smith in recent negotiations disputes had enhanced the reputation of this area in the eyes of teachers throughout the province.

"There would not have been a settlement" in two teacher-board disputes in the province "without the work of Mac Smith," said Mr. Hodgins. The Quinte area is becoming recognized for leadership among educationalists in the

An Ugly Mess

No conflict has thrust itself on the world scene with less hope of settlement than the strife in Northern Ireland. Although it has grabbed world headlines in greater scope in the past three years than formerly, it is merely the manifestation of a festering sore that has been in Great Britain's side for nearly 300 years. This also indicates the complexity of the problem and the degree of wisdom that will be required to solve it. It indeed is ever so solved.

The traditional fight in Ireland hinges on the religious battles fought in the late 1600's, when the Roman Catholic forces led by the monarch of the day, King James, met up with the Protestant group led by William of Orange, a Dutch king, invited to England to try and rally those who opposed the king. The decisive battle fought, it seemed at the time that some type of solution had been found, but in this type of conflict, such does not come easy.

Things again came to a head early in this century when the British government partitioned the country, with the six predominantly Protestant counties of the north left as part of England and the balance became a separate republic. This may have led to the present strife, as the Protestant majority in the north forced its will and way of life on the Roman Catholic minority. In recent times, these injustices have come back to haunt the rulers from across the sea, and are perhaps the basic root of today's issue.

One thing is obvious in this complex situation, namely that there have been problems created on both sides. Each claims certain wrongs, and there are quite likely good grounds for cause in each. The principal catalyst in keeping this civil war type action alive is that the Irish Catholic militants claim that England has no right to force rule on Irish people, and this is why they keep pecking away. There are also many factions involved in the war it is hard for those outside the land to keep things straight.

It would seem that self-determination may in the long run be the best answer. It is bitterly opposed by the Protestant leaders, because they feel that this would be giving in to the wishes of the minority. This might be true, but in the past quarter century many minorities have made their presence felt in other countries with reasonable success. It would be a bitter pill to swallow, but English history is built upon equal rights to all, so this in the end may be the answer.

Ray Shortt was elected president at the annual meeting of the Stirling Agricultural Society held in the Office of the Department of Agriculture on Thursday afternoon last. Donald W. Over 200 skaters were in attendance at the annual skating party of the South Hastings Young People's Union at Stirling Arena on Thursday night last. Music for skating was provided over the public address system operated by Maurice Bell. Following the skating, Harold Hagerman acted as chairman for a brief program of community singing held in St. Paul's Church Parlor. Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Rawdon Junior Institute girls held their meeting in the High School on Monday evening. Vice - president, Francis Morrison presided. The meeting opened by singing the Institute Ode, followed by roll call, answered with "What color I like best." A reading was given by Margaret Haggerty, "Avoid self-consciousness." The minutes of the last meeting were read and the business discussed. An York County Council passed a resolution objecting to members smoking while the Council was in session.

In leaving Stirling after a short residence in our midst, one whose opinion is worth accepting, said he never met a happier or kinder set of people in all his journeyings. Let us not neglect the grace of hospitality, but endeavor to have strangers carry away pleasant memories of their stay among us. For its population we believe Stirling has an exceptionally large proportion of intelligent and progressive people, and in order to make the most of our opportunities we must not fail to make every newcomer and every stranger feel that for the honest-purposed man and woman we have a warm spot in our hearts and homes.

The Spring Brook Women's Institute held an interesting meeting at Mr. C. The first was well and profitably discussed by all. Mrs. James McComb gave a

Dear Editor,
I am truly sorry to hear about your father.
How is everything in the Village of Stirling? We would like to wish everyone the best for 1973 from the sunny south. It is unusual, not to see any snow during the winter, but very nice to have so much sunshine all the time.

appropriate poem was read by Patsy Pollock entitled, "It,"

Local thermometers did a nose dive Tuesday morning to establish a near all-time low for this district. Several townsmen reported the mercury reaching 40 and 42 below while the official reading at the Radio Beam Station was 33 below.

The monthly meeting of the Rawdon Junior Farmers and Junior Institute was held in the Stirling High School on Monday evening, Feb. 9th.

The chairman for the Junior Farmers meeting was the president, Bob Cosbey. Several items of business were discussed including plans for a proposed trip to Toronto.

Speakers for the evening were Delbert McComb who spoke on "Warble Fly Control," Bob Hoard on "Swine Feeding," and Glenn Bush on "Swine Diseases."

The skating Carnival sponsored by Stirling Branch No. 228, of the Canadian Legion, in the Stirling Arena last night was largely attended and was one of the most successful for years.

The lengthy program was carried out with precision and dispatch under the able management of president, George Noble and his assistants and the Legion is to be congratulated on the success of their efforts.

A good program is being prepared and during the evening there will be intermission of seven minutes, in which time light refreshments will be served by a committee of seven. The admission fee is 7 cents, every seventh person being admitted free. The proceeds will be in aid of the Forward Movement for Missions.

An interesting talk on "Canadian Banking" was given in St. Andrew's lecture room on Monday evening by Mr. W.R. Howson, Manager of the Bank of Montreal. Clearly and ably Mr. Howson showed the methods of earlier days, and traced the development up to the present well-nigh perfect Canadian system. Concrete illustrations of the banks' part in the commercial life of the nations were given, and the work of the clearing house was explained. Mr. L. Three Options
A working group under Environment Ontario's solid waste task force has been assigned to investigate beverage packaging.

Environment Minister James Auld, outlining the objectives of this study, said there is no intention of picking on this particular industry.

It's one of several starting points in dealing with waste problems. "A matter of attacking the more visible and obvious products of a throw-away society first," he explained.

In its simplest terms the container you buy, empty and discarded is a convenience item. It's convenient for you and for the seller, distributor and manufacturer who do not have to handle returns and refund deposits.

But it is not a convenience for society. We all have to pay the costs on handling an increasing garbage load. We all have to pay the price of aesthetic degradation when throw-away containers and wrappers are discarded as litter.

It's just not fair that we should all pay for the convenience of the people who want to use throwaways.

Mr. Auld has given the task force a position paper prepared by waste management staff. It outlines three options for dealing with containers for soft drinks, beer, ale, wine and spirits.

One method, quite simply, an outright ban on non-reusable containers. This is drastic medicine with obvious and far reaching effects on the industry and the community. It is so drastic that any actual implementation of this measure would have to be staged over a number of years to ease the impact.

Another method is now in use in British Columbia, Alberta and Saskatchewan. This would require a refund on all types of containers whether they are reusable or not. Some steps would have to be taken to make sure that distributors and retailers were required to give a refund. It might also be necessary to set up return depots.

Another method would set a minimum deposit level on reusable containers—a deposit high enough to encourage people to return them. Coupled with this would be a disposal levy on non-reusable containers, so that people who want throwaway convenience would have to pay extra for it.

This levy could be applied to improving waste disposal facilities and research into reclamation of wastes.

The Ontario Soft Drink Association has already made a proposal to Mr. Auld that comes remarkably close to this last option.

The task force, when it concludes its study of these options this spring, may recommend action on one or it may find another solution.

One thing is certain. The Ministry of the Environment is determined to reverse our gradual slide into a throwaway society.

CONTRIBUTED BY STIRLING CLERGYMEN

(By Douglas Tyrer)
"My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand." John 10:27-28.

In order to appreciate the meaning and purpose of this "Eternal Life," of which the Lord Jesus spoke so freely about, we must have an awareness and a consciousness of personal need in this life. Nicodemus in John 3:1-21 came to Jesus by night. Why? We are not told why he came to Jesus, but as we read the account, we realize Nicodemus came to the one who would give eternal life. Jesus said, "I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly."

Zacchaeus was another person of whom we read in Luke 19:1-10. He sought to see Jesus who he was. "Let us grasp the urgency of these words. "He sought to see Jesus who he was." This was no mere casual acquaintance. Zacchaeus was seeking, but rather a personal relationship with the only one who could bless his life, forgive his sins, and give him eternal life. "And he made haste, and came down and received him joyfully."

"But as many as received him, to them gave he the power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name." John 1:12.

Pick Your Hymn Was Service Theme

The second in a series of three Hymn Sing Services, sponsored by the Anglican, Presbyterian and United Churches in Stirling was held Sunday night at St. Paul's Church. The crowd was slightly larger than that which attended the first service last month. The format of this service was slightly different than the first, in that for the congregational singing, the people in the audience were asked to select the pieces. The choices were split about equally between those from the hymn book and from a specially prepared hymn sheet handed out by the ushers.

The choir processional hymn was "Come let us sing of a wonderful love," followed by the call to worship and prayer of invocation by Rev. John May. In the first series of hymns, the selections were "There were ninety and nine that safely lay," "What a friend we have in Jesus," and "Jesus, keep me near the Cross," followed by the responsive reading of Psalm 32. The combined choir sang "Thine is the Glory," taken from the new Anglican-United Hymn Book.

Rev. Charles Staples conducted the second section of singing, which included "Since Jesus came into my heart," "When the roll is called up yonder," "How Great Thou Art," and "Count your blessings." He also read the Scripture lesson for the evening taken from Hebrews chapter 10, beginning at the 38th verse. During this portion of the singing, Rev. May provided piano accompaniment in addition to the organ music.

Hymns sung in the third portion were "The way of the cross leads home," "The church's one foundation," "Unto the hills," "Creation's Lord, we give Thee thanks," and "O Master let me walk with Thee."

Rev. Roy Taylor led in prayer. The recessional hymn was "Now the day is over." The next service will be held at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on March 11th.

WEEKLY REPORT FROM FOXBORO DISTRICT

(BY JACK WOOD)

Here's a brand new alfalfa variety for Ontario farmers. It's name .. Weevlechek .. indicates some resistance to alfalfa weevil, and in United States, it has shown less damage under severe weevil attack, than other varieties. It is United Co-operative's first new variety, and was bred by Farmers Forage Research Co-operative in Indiana. It was licensed for sale in December 1972, and is recommended for use in Ontario by the Ontario Forage Crops Committee and the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture.

Weevlechek is as winter hardy as Vernal, and has more resistance to bacterial wilt than Vernal. Maturity is similar to Vernal alfalfa.

Check children's eyes for ailments

Hundreds of children under the age of four are losing the sight of one eye and don't know it. More than that, their parents don't know it either. "Their problem is an eye condition known as Amblyopia," said Miss Pat Baverstock, President of the CCB Quinte White Cane Club, The Canadian Council of the Blind. "Amblyopia is not a disease," she said in a special White Cane Week interview. "It is a condition in young children which reduces the vision of one eye to zero. The treatment is simple enough. It consists of patching the good eye to make the child use the poor one. Glasses and sometimes surgery are also used."

The CCB Club President told of one youngster who was first seen by the eye doctor when he was two. The condition was spotted and a simple patch put over the other eye to make the child use the poor one. He was due back for a check in three months, but did not keep the appointment. By the time he was seen again, his vision in the poor eye had dropped to nil. The patch bothered the child and the parents let him take it off. "What they really did was let him destroy the vision in one eye," the CCB Club official said. "Most parents don't understand this and sometimes don't believe it, but once the child reaches four years of age without treatment the sight in one eye is lost for life. An operation can cure the squint but it can't restore sight."

She pointed out some of the symptoms of poor eyesight which parents should look for: blinking and rubbing the eyes, tripping over small objects, showing an over sensitivity to light - these are nature's signals of possible eye trouble. "It's bad enough to lose the sight in one eye but an estimated 200 children will lose their sight completely this year," the CCB Club President said.

"Conscientious parents can protect the sight of their children in a easy way with an eye examination in the early years."

"Remember, one pair of eyes must last a lifetime."

The winners were: Ladies high, Gary Kite (playing as a lady), Ladies 2nd, Mrs. Jim York, Ladies low, Mrs. Fred Martin; Mens high, Archie Wickens; Mens 2nd, Arthur Hagerman; Mens low, Clare Tanner. Stop Dumping In Rural Areas

"Who wants to live near a giant garbage dump? Nobody. We have too much pride in our land to idly permit others to sour it."

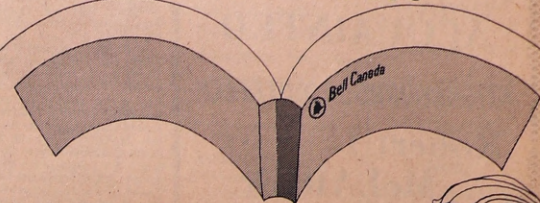

The OFA representatives told premier William Davis and his ministers that burying garbage in deep pits would risk waterable and air pollution, growth of vermin, and land depreciation. The farm group called it an insult to farmers. "Much of this garbage is excessive packaging and wrapping from food. This needless waste is demanded by the consumer, but only serves to raise the price of food. It is an injustice to pin the price of this extravagance on the farmer, then dump it upon him," protests Mathie.

Coronary care units, which have had considerable success in reducing mortality in patients admitted to hospital with heart attack, were pioneered in Canadian hospitals.

IN MEMORIAM

MCCRORY - In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Myrtle, who passed away Feb. 10, 1969.

God saw you getting tired,
When a cure was not to be found.
So He closed His arms around you,
And whispered come to me,
You didn't deserve what you went through.

And no He gave you rest,
God's garden must be beautiful.
For He only takes the best.
- Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by Ruth, Eugene and grandchildren. 7-1

DOJARS & GOOD SENSE

by WILLIAM J. MARTIN
Special Consultant to Auto Financial Services

On January 18 a new U.S. law, designed to save you money on future automobile purchases, became effective.
Commonly referred to as the "bumper bill", its full title is the Motor Vehicle Information and Cost Savings Act.

Basically the law will establish front and rear bumper standards for all U.S. cars to reduce low-speed collision damage, but there's more to it than that. The new bumper standards will become effective after July 1, and the act provides stiff penalties for violators.

Consumers can even sue manufacturers if damage to their cars results from a violation of the new standards.

The law also authorizes the establishment of diagnostic inspection demonstration standards in the U.S. to check for compliance with the safety and air pollution emission regulations, and it launches a one-year government study on the costs of operating and repairing various car models.

Finally, the law will require U.S. car dealers by February 1, 1975, to furnish prospective buyers with insurance costs for different models based on ability to passengers.

Rev. John May announced that the Belleville Presbytery meeting will be held in this church the third Tuesday in April, and an evening meal would be required. This will be taken care of by this society.

The devotional service was led by Mrs. Bogart, with scripture reading in part,
"The harvest is plentiful but the laborers are few."

All sang "Will there be any stars in my crown".

Snowmobiles Take 29 Lives So Far

More than 30 deaths involving drivers and passengers of snowmobiles have been recorded during this winter season in the Province of Ontario. The O.P.P. have investigated 23 of these life wasting occurrences which claimed 29 persons.

The greatest loss of life from a single cause occurs when machines travelling on lakes and rivers crash through the ice.

In the majority of cases multiple deaths involving both drivers and passengers are the result. To date 14 persons have died in only 9 separate sinkings.

In spite of constant warnings operators fail to recognize obvious dangers and the inevitable tragic outcome. The shock of being plunged into cold water and the rapid paralyzing effect on the body are quick to render the victim helpless. Add to this the overpowering weight of heavy water soaked, winter clothing and you complete the fatal combination.

The obvious danger periods are most certainly at the beginning and end of the season or during prolonged periods of milder weather. However, other factors also influence the thickness, quality and the presence of ice: fast moving current, underground springs, pressure cracks and the separation of ice fields. There can never be any period of guaranteed safety.

The O.P.P. urge the drivers of snowmobiles to exercise the utmost of caution when driving on ice. You can never give too much respect to those things that will take your life.

School guard issue turned down for now

On a split 3-2 vote, Stirling Village Council this week shelved the issue of hiring adult crossing guards to replace the present school safety patrol system.

The vote came after a discussion on the matter which had been raised first at the January 15 meeting, and shelved then and last meeting because there was not a full council in attendance.

The issue first came to council on request from Principal George Patton and Vice-Principal Ed Fleming of the Stirling Public Schools. They asked that the adults be hired to replace the existing student patrols, as they felt the pupils' responsibility was too great.

A survey of nearby municipalities by some council members revealed Frankford and Tweed have no program at all, while the only adult crossing guards in the area are in Belleville and Trenton.

One prominent comment in Monday's discussion was the fact that apparently the present patrol system needs some improvement. Some councilors noted that in recent weeks there were no students on patrol and this comment had been voiced also by some parents contacted.

In turning down the issue at this time, Reeve Robert Anderson commented that he felt the whole matter should be reviewed again in a few months, and perhaps if implemented, should start in September. He noted that by then the present students participating in the patrol work, grades seven and eight, would be attending the new school on St. James Street, and it would be difficult to have them conduct the work from there. At that time, with the younger pupils being the only ones going to the present system, it might be advantageous to have adult supervision.

Ontario Provincial Police said there was an estimated $300 damage to the Doyle pickup truck and that investigation was continuing.

A Stirling man was taken to Trenton Memorial and later Kingston General Hospital Saturday night after crashing into a tree.

R.R. 4 Stirling resident Ronald Doyle, 30, was transferred to Kingston after examination in Trenton for treatment of head injuries sustained in the accident which occurred two miles west of Highway 33 on the Glen Ross Road.

Ivanhoe Women's Institute

The regular meeting of Ivanhoe Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. George Wood with a good attendance. The first vice president, Mrs. C. Irvine took charge of the meeting and opened with the Institute Ode and Mary Stewart Collect, followed by the roll call with each member naming a song with the word "heart" in it.

Sec. Treas. Mrs. A.R. Miller read the minutes of the last meeting followed by correspondence and business. It was moved by Margaret and seconded by Molly Tanner that all bills be paid. It was moved by Mary Sills and seconded by Margaret Haggerty that we take charge of the Bingo for one month at Edward Street Manor. Moved by Laura Wood and seconded by Ada Roeper that we look after the refreshments at the hall next Thursday after the meeting.

Short reports were given by the convenors. Laura Wood favored us with two accordion selections. Ada Roeper sang a solo and Norma MacMillan gave a reading. The highlight of the afternoon was when Mabel Irvine introduced our guest speaker, Mr. Kolver. He showed us pictures of his rose garden and other flowers in his home, and pictures of South Africa where he lived at one time which were very interesting. Margaret Haggerty, on behalf of the Institute, expressed thanks and presented Mr. Kolver with a small gift.

The meeting closed with the Institute Grace. The hostess and her assistants served lunch and a social hour was enjoyed by all.

COUNCIL BRIEFS

Stirling Village Council was notified Monday night by a Peterborough lawyer that he has been retained to take legal action on behalf of Miss Meri-Lynn Webb, of Norwood. She sustained injuries while a spectator at a hockey game in Stirling, February 9th.

According to information so far available, the girl slipped and struck her head, causing her to lose consciousness. She was first treated here by Dr. P.D.G. Briggs, and then taken to hospital in Belleville, and later transferred to hospital in Kingston.

The matter has been transferred to the town's solicitor for appropriate action.

Council endorsed a resolution from the town of Thorold, which has strenuously opposed the suggestion to have Ontario Hydro converted to a Crown Corporation, and ultimately eliminate local commissions as they now exist.

Council gave approval for the Canadian Diabetic Association to conduct a lottery in this area through its Ontario Branch. Any tickets sold in this area will be channelled through the Quinte Branch.

Council formally signed the agreement with the County of Hastings, to use the services of its building inspector. This action completes the legal requirements, following acceptance of this procedure by passing the required bylaw last month.

County Again Seeks Match

The Hastings County Plowmen's Association will renew its request at the annual meeting of the Ontario Association for the International Plowing Match to be held in this county in 1977.

The initial application for Hastings as the site for the 1977 event was made last year, but Kenneth Mumby, county association delegate to the provincial meeting told county council members Wednesday that with council approval it would again be made this year.

At least one other county, Huron, has also made a bid for the 1977 match. This year's provincial match will be in Lambton county.

The big international match was last held in Hastings in 1961.

Mr. Mumby said the provincial match meant a lot of work for the local county committee but assured it was a big attraction.

And apparently the art of good plowing is gaining in

Stirling WI holds meeting

Wednesday afternoon this Institute met in the Community Hall at Noon for a pot-luck dinner.

Later the meeting was opened with the singing of the Ode and repeating of the Creed. Mrs. Cooke welcomed all. The attendance was 20 members and one visitor.

Through the absence of Mrs. Senior, Mrs. A. Brooks, carried out these duties by reading the minutes and the thank you letters from Scott Mission and the two nursing homes in the village.

This resulted in increasing the number of county council members to 47 - a number many felt was more than required to administer county affairs.

The private bill to be before the legislature calls for the election of a deputy-reeve only when the number of electors exceeds 2,500 and would reduce the number of councillors to 26.

Currently, the municipal act calls for election of deputy-reeve when the number of electors reaches 1,000.

Wollaston township, one of the 13 municipalities which sent a deputy-reeve to council for the first time this year, opposed the private bill and a stiff fight was indicated if the matter went to a vote.

But a possible stalemate was averted with the motion from Tweed Reeve Barbara Allen and Deseronto Reeve George Lyons to proceed with the private bill but delay implementation of its provisions until the end of 1974.

The motion got almost unanimous support from council with only Reeve James Pollock of Rawdon casting a nay vote. Four of the 47 council members were absent.

The view expressed by many councillors was that the deputy reeves had been elected by the private bill but delay implementation of its provisions until the end of 1974.

Reeve Allen said council had no time to bring in its private bill before last December's election.

"We have no right to say deputy-reeves cannot sit on council but we do have the right to limit the size of future councils," she said.

Reeve Frank Peever of Herschel Township took the same view but in lighter vein said the whole matter could be settled without the necessity of a vote.

"I suggest we leave the deputy reeves here and send the reeves home," he said.

popularity at the county level.

A report of the county plowmen's association given to council by agricultural representative Douglas Tipper showed that while the annual county match attracted only 16 competitors a few years ago, last year's match drew close to 40 entrants.

"The management feels this is moving in the right direction," Mr. Tipper said.

Merrie Bowlers

Did anyone hear the big racket in town on Wednesday? It was just the crashing and clanging of the bell rings. Were they noisy, and were they noisy? They have a new belief... the more resonance the more "umph!"... and it really works. Just like a look at the scoring: Lillian Arbuckle, high single of 264; Barb Noble 254, 214 taking high triple of 660. Barb has climbed back into the high average seat at 179. There is a real battle on for the high average right now. Barb, Betty Hubble and Helena Oosting are taking turns or tying. It looks like a fight to the finish.

Others showing their best were Betty Hubble 204; Ruth Glover 253; Bessie Hewton 207; Jean Cooke 200; and Ruth Casswell 213. Bessie Hewton's Dingbats and Isobel Hutcheon's Belles each took 5 points leaving Mil.

CUB CORNER

At our meeting Monday evening, Feb. 19 the Grand Howl was led by the Red Six, composed of Jeffery Whitehead, Peter Jones, Scott Whitehead, Steven Wells, Andrew Staples, and Dale Ashley.

Two new Cubs were welcomed this week - Dale Ashley to the Red Six and Donald Ashley to the Blue Six.

Attendance and inspection showed 28 boys present.

Baloo and Ka-a led in an evening of games they thought well deserved because the boys worked so hard and did church service.

We were all honored by a visit from our District Commissioner, Mrs. Verna Woodbeck.

Next there was an announcement made that filled the boys with mixed emotions. Due to the honest devotion of Joe Sugar (Akela), who feels the new adventure in a very large farm will not leave him time enough to devote to the boys, has stepped down and exchanged places with Ka-a, (Ken Frost). We know Ken will make a fine Akela and we will have Joe as Ka-a.

At this time we wish to thank our parents for helping us to have a perfect attendance of Cubs and fathers at the Banquet. The Cub leaders wish to thank our boys for the outstanding effort they put into their program at the banquet and their attendance at the church service.

Don't forget to bring our displays to the Masonic Hall by 11 o'clock Saturday morning, Feb. 24, and come prepared to stay until 2:30 or 3:00 p.m. Please ask mom for cookies or donuts to bring.

We invite everyone to come Saturday, February 24 to the Masonic Hall from 11:30 a.m. till 2:30 p.m. to have coffee and cookies and let us explain what we do in Cubs. We also want to show you what we have already done.

Remember boys, Thursday, Feb. 22nd is Lord Baden Powell's birthday. Wear your uniform to school.

A Better Way

If the people of the world really want peace, they should put as much effort into emulating the spirit and success of the Boy Scout Movement as they now do into trying to out-think each other in ways to dominate nations.

Approaching its 65th birthday, the Scout movement has exhibited over this time span a way of life for boys and girls from eight to mid-twenties that has enabled millions to get along better with one another. One only has to look at the program of a Scout Jamboree to see how this happens. These gatherings have been held every four years since 1921, except for the war years, and have vividly shown how those of different skin color, language and customs can live together harmoniously and also teach one another their different habits.

If one contrasts the openness and comradeship that exists at such events with the cloak and dagger secrecy which surrounds most international gatherings of adults, there must be something injected into the Scout agenda that is not present in the adult mode of doing things. To bring many thousands of boys or girls together; have them live in the outdoor setting which is their mode; and have them interact in the presence of seeds of mistrust and fear of interruption present, says a lot for the system.

A close examination of the Scout system reveals that simple values, properly taught, seems to be the key to success. Scouts are not bound by rigid rules of protocol, but rather operate on a human-to-human relationship. They follow a simple set of rules easily summed up in the words: "Be trustworthy, loyal, helpful, brotherly, courteous, kind, obedient, smiling, thrifty, and pure as the rustling wind. This may sound like high ideals, and they are. It is not suggested there are not among the membership who stray from the intended path; nor is it suggested that it is an easy road to follow.

No one man in recent history has made such a profound impact on the life of the people of the world as did Lord Robert Baden-Powell of Gilwell. A man of military training, he used this experience and those experiences he witnessed during his soldier travels to formulate the Scout creed. Coupled with this he introduced a life of camping, study of nature, and healthy competition, utilizing facilities at hand rather than elaborate materials, which gave the boys a feeling of involvement, self-reliance and practice of leadership.

Today many may scoff at what these might term Victorian thinking or stuffiness. Let it be said that anyone who has been personally involved in this great exercise in human experience would be the first to refute such arguments. The history and success of the movement speaks for itself and is a living monument to the man who instituted it. Get involved with it, and you will likely come to the same conclusion.

Do You Remember?

25 Years Ago

St. Paul's Young People's Union entertained the Frankford Y.P.U. to a Valentine party on Monday evening in the United Church Parlours. The meeting opened with quiet music with Tommy Patterson at the piano. A short devotional period was conducted by Harold Hagerman, followed by a brief business discussion. The president, Miss Huffman welcomed the visitors.

Helen Stinson was convener of the programme committee. Ida Ketcheson favoured the selection. Rev. R.W. Barker told the story of Saint Valentine. Two instrumental duets were given by Jack Smith and Ross Horniman. A hymn sung by all, brought this part of the meeting to a close.

The World's Day of Prayer was held in St. John's Church on February 13th, with a good attendance. The theme throughout the entire service was "The Lord's Prayer." With the first part being taken by Mrs. Savage, president of St. John's W.A., the second by the President of St. Andrew's Church W.M.S., and the third by Mrs. C. Macklin, President of St. Paul's Church W.M.S. Prayers were said by members of the different organizations.

Mrs. E. Foster has returned to her home after spending the last five years with Mrs. G. Rosebush.

Stirling Midgets carry a two-goal lead into the second game of the home and home O.M.H.A. Midget "C" series with Trinity College School, Port Hope, as a result of their 6-4 victory in Port Hope Arena on Monday night. The game, was played on heavy ice and neither team was able to display their best hockey.

A real estate deal of interest was completed this week, when William Chambers disposed of his farm to John Sheridan, who has been farming in the Stockdale district.

65 Years Ago

In March Belleville is to be visited by three evangelists, Rev. H.T. Crossley, Rev. J.E. Hunter, and Mr. S.A. Russell, a lay evangelist from Scotland.

About 175 persons responded to the invitation to the "Seven Social" given by the Missionary Committee of the Epworth League in the Sunday School room of the Methodist church on Monday evening last. Seven young men and seven young ladies sang. Seven young men sang during the seven minutes intermission. Seven little girls, each holding a lighted candle, sang "Jesus bids us shine." A short sketch of each of seven missionaries supported by the Forward Movement was given. Miss C. Skitch gave an excellent paper on "What Constitutes a Missionary Call." Miss Annie Clarke sang a solo and Roscoe Wright gave a mouth organ selection.

The Maple Leaf Mission Band of St. Andrew's church is preparing for a social at the new manse on Friday Feb. 28th. This will be the first time the new manse has been open to the general public, and the boys and girls are anticipating a large attendance. Full particulars will be given on bills to be issued from the News-Argus press.

Response Poor In Name Picking

The February Board Meeting was held Thursday evening, February 8 in the Board Room of the Loyalist College. The following were present: Chairman W.J. Wilkinson, J. Clemenson, W.C. Down, Mrs. Gordon Fraser, R.A. Loader, F. Rabel, The Rev. H.J. Maloney, G. Douglas Wainwright, G.A. Wishart, Mrs. G.S. Wonnacott, and President H. Young.

It was noted that the resignation of Donald M. Soutter had been received due to his new business commitments. The following items were discussed:

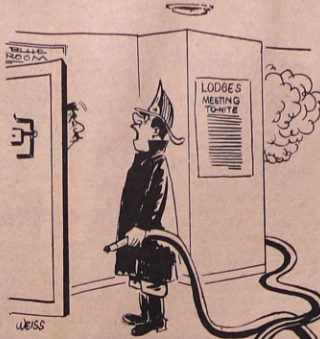

1. To ensure that sufficient field placement opportunities were available to the students, it was agreed that the Early Childhood Education Program would be limited to 30 students in the coming year.

2. The ad hoc committee on naming the College building reported a very low response to the survey of students, faculty and staff members for suggestions. The committee would be meeting shortly to determine its recommendations to be presented to the March Board Meeting.

3. The next step in the transfer of the Nursing Program to the College was taken. Chairman John Donelan, Mr. Frank Rabel, Mr. G.A. Wishart and Mrs. G.S. Wonnacott were appointed to form an ad hoc committee with members of the Board of the Edith Cavell School of Nursing. This committee would meet to set up a task force for the transfer.

SILLY SEASON SO SOON?

In the dead of summer, when hard news falls off and everyone who makes interesting feature materials out of town, comes the time known as the silly season.

That's when newspapers and magazines reach for the ridiculous to entertain their readers. It must have come early this year.

I just heard that horses used for logging in the immediate area of Oregon's Bull Run Reservoir, are wearing diapers. The diapers are to keep the animals from fouling the watershed when they feel a call of nature.

You see, they have to use horses to log in that particular area. The machines that are used generally in the logging industry tend to churn up the earth and horses don't.

With diapers on the horses, the soil and the water quality are not disturbed.

Our Oregon correspondent forgot to ask them, but I'll bet that the horses are disturbed by the whole embarrassing thing.

On the other hand, the diaper approach might solve some of the controversy that keeps cropping up in cities like Toronto over dogs.

You can count on regular complaints in the letters to the editor columns from people who object to having their front lawns used as public canine conveniences. And there is a real hostility to people who walk their dogs to neighbors' lawns.

It's solid enough for Tom Hughes of the Ontario Humane Society to take an editorial stand in the society publication Animals Voice. His plea is to animal owners to curb their pets and keep them from being a nuisance, solving problems without legislation.

In Britain, legislation has been passed requiring dog owners to remove what his dog leaves behind. In some US cities, the owner is required to grab his dog and thrust the offending end in the direction of the gutter when an offense is imminent.

I'd hate to see that happen in Ontario. We have enough serious things to take care of in restoring and protecting the air, land and water.

But Keeping It Clean has been serious for the past few weeks. It's time to look at the light side.

Mrs. Florence Kemp

Mrs. Florence Maude Kemp of Colborne died at the home of her daughter on Saturday, Feb. 17, 1973 in her 94th year. She had been in ill health for some time.

The funeral service was held on Monday, Feb. 19 at 2 p.m. at the Frankford Free Methodist Church, with Rev. D.W. Eyr officiating.

Palbearers were Don Hauser, Malcolm Rutherford, Harold Robert and El. don Kemp, and Glenn Irvine. Entombment took place in Stockdale Cemetery vault.

Born in Seymour township she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Williams. She had been a resident of Colborne for 20 years living with her daughter for the past eight years.

Mrs. Kemp is survived by a daughter Mrs. William (Lorena) Irvine, Colborne, two sons, Hayden R.R.I. Lakefield, and Rev. Gerald Kemp, Marmora; 16 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

She was predeceased by her husband, Robert, in 1960, also by a brother and two sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Kemp farmed for several years on the Eighth Concession of Rawdon township, north of Stirling, before leaving for a farm on the Eighth Concession of Colborne north of Wooler in 1916.

Mrs. Kemp was a member of the Free Methodist Church in Frankford.

Weekly Meditation

CONTRIBUTED BY STIRLING CLERGYMEN

(By Rev. W.C. Cox)

The Rev. John Smith, Pres. of the Bay of Quinte Conference of the United Church tells a story of a mountain climbing expedition working its way up a vertical cliff. The middle man of the group grasped a large rock which came away in his hands. In desperation he clung to it, dangling helplessly in mid-air until the lead man of the team shouted "Let the thing go." The man let go and so the other two men were able to hang on and pull him to safety. Had the man refused to let go of the rock all three would have fallen to their death.

The church may change. In order to survive it may have to let go of that which is no longer of use. But we must hang on to that which is solid and eternal and of utmost value. We must let go those things which seemed important but which in fact were not. This year practically all the churches in Canada have committed themselves to being involved in something called "Key 73". Basically this is a program of evangelism to be participated in co-operatively and/or separately but simultaneously by the churches in 1973. We hope the world will listen if we speak together. For the sake of Christ may we forget some of our differences, at least for a time, and concentrate on the most important things, and work together to witness to the saving love of God.

building he owns at 5 Front Street West. He is also planning to introduce a new line of merchandise for Stirling and area residents in the near future.

The News-Argus, published by Lynn Jones, has moved to 19 Front Street West, the former Simpson-Sears office in the McCaughen block. The move has been effected over the past week and all business will be transacted there beginning Thursday, February 22nd.

As a result of the move, both businesses will have more space to conduct their work, especially the newspaper which has been produced under quite cramped quarters for the past two and a half years. At the new premises, offices have been installed and a dark room built. Some new furniture requirements have also been installed to improve production facilities. The newspaper, now in its 92nd year of publication, was owned by Mr. Hulin until 1970, when Eldon Kemp purchased it and converted to the offset method of publication. In 1971 Mr. Jones acquired the printing business from Mr. Hulin and the business was operated as a partnership until September 1972, when Mr. Kemp sold his interest to Mr. Jones. Also during the past year, the News-Argus and the Tweed News, published by Clyde Bell Robert Hannah and Eldon Kemp, have jointly purchased a press on which to publish the paper each week. This has been in operation since December.

Thirty-six top breeding stallions, worth more than one million dollars will be assembled on "Stallion Avenue" for the three day event.

DOJARS & GOOD SENSE
by WILLIAM J. MARTIN
Special Consultant to Auto Financial Services

Dear Mr. Martin:

Due to a special assignment, my family and I are going to be moving out of state for a year or two. After that we'll return, so we don't want to sell our home. We'd like to rent it but are worried about damage, etc. What do you think?

Renting is usually a lot better than leaving your home vacant, but fears about renting are shared by many. There are some precautions you can take, however.

Every thing depends on your tenant, of course, and finding the right tenant can depend on the rental market in your city.

A security deposit is pretty common and a good tenant shouldn't object to paying one. Prepare a lease, or use a standard form, but be specific about which party bears the cost of repairs, etc. You probably should assume the costs of structural repairs to the house, while your tenant should pay for routine household repairs.

Most important -- you and your tenant should go through the house and take a detailed inventory, noting the specific condition of all items, and sign it. Then make a list of the people to be called when things go wrong, so you know that repairs will be made properly.

Readers' questions are welcome and should be sent to Box 5875 London, Ontario.

Fourteen girls representing Ontario Saddle Clubs will vie for the honor of representing the Ontario Quarter Horse Association at Columbus, Ohio, in October at the All American Quarter Horse Congress. For entertainment, the Gordie Tapp Show will be an added feature attraction with Ed Gyurki, Canada's fiddling champion.

Other attractions include a Quarter Horse Auction of 48 top quality stallions, mares and geldings and a western style fashion show and exhibit. Tickets are available at the Coliseum gate.

Local Stirling and area men who are planning to attend Quarterama '73 include Roy Tokley, John Ross Hodgins, Peter Barron, Glen Floud and Wayne Shaw.

TREMENDOUS TRIFLES
THE BAKED POTATO THAT LAUNCHED A STATESMAN

A state auditor disallowed an item of 35 cents for a baked potato, and the resulting publicity carried him to the governorship and later to the United States Senate.

After years of hard work, Victor Donahay had reached the position of state auditor in Ohio. He was politically ambitious, but his almost anonymous post was hardly a springboard for better things. (How many readers today know the name of their state auditor?)

One day Donahay was checking over the routine expense account of an official who had made a trip to Cleveland. Among the official's items was a meal which included one baked potato for 35 cents. Donahay figured that was too much to pay for a potato, baked or unbaked. He disallowed the 35 cents and forgot about it.

But a young reporter who was having trouble digging up news heard about the potato episode and wrote it up. Other papers picked up the yarn and Donahay was labelled "Honest Vic".

Following all the publicity, Donahay ran for Governor of Ohio. "Honest Vic" won a whopping victory. At the expiration of his first term, Donahay ran for re-election. The voters returned "Honest Vic" to office.

Flushed with victory, Donahay decided to run for the Senate. His backers played the label of "Honest Vic" for all it was worth. Donahay was swept to Washington on a surging tide of votes.

THE STIRLING NEWS-ARGUS, Wednesday, February 21, 1973

In the Senate, Donahay made a cut Vic. Finally Donahay retired good record for himself, and the from public life voluntarily. He had papers continued to call him "Honest Vic" never lost an election.

R. JOHN ROBINSON

Rawdon Native Dies In Alberta

Mrs. C. Tummon received word last week that her uncle R. John Robinson of Lloydminster, Alta., had passed away on Tuesday.

Mr. Robinson observed his 100th birthday on Dec. 10, 1972. His great nephew, Mr. Elmer Wilson, West Huntington and a niece, Mrs. H.N. Brown, Toronto, flew to Edmonton, then travelled by car to Lloydminster to be present at the celebration held in the Auxiliary Hospital situated on Mr. Robinson's own farm and in which he has been a patient for the past few years.

Mr. Robinson was born on the Ridge Road farm, now owned by Mr. Delbert McCurdy. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. John Robinson and is the last of the family of 11 children.

Around the turn of the century he married Mary Baker, a school teacher from Moira, Ont. In 1908 they moved to Western Canada as Pioneers and homesteaded in the McLaughlin District of Alberta, until 1912 when they moved to the present homestead at Lloydminster Alta., on the boundary between Alberta and Saskatchewan, which farm is today on the front street of Lloydminster.

On the trip in 1908, Mr. Robinson travelled in a boxcar with their household possessions and live-stock for 12 days and 11 nights.

There were no established schools or churches in those days and Mr. Robinson loved to relate the story of going into the house to find Mary sitting in a rocking chair busily knitting, sewing, mending or darning, with one foot on the rocker of the baby's cradle while she taught their older children and sometimes neighboring children seated on the floor around her, their three R's or Bible Stories. Mr. Robinson was a member of the Pentecostal Church, but as a Lay Minister, preached in the Pioneer Methodist and Presbyterian Churches.

In 1955 the province of Alberta celebrated 50 years as a member of the Confederation of Canada by presenting each Alberta Pioneer with a sum of money. Both Mr. and Mrs. Robinson expressed the strong desire to once more see Old Ontario in her glorious Autumn Dress, but due to their advanced ages the family did not encourage the trip. Finally Mr. Tummon wrote and offered his home as headquarters, where their relatives and friends were free to come to visit them or take them out for a day. A wire came immediately telling where and when to meet them. They spent several weeks visiting old haunts and renewing old acquaintances.

While they were in Ontario, all the buildings, except the house on the farm, were demolished to make way for the two new buildings, a Lodge for Senior Citizens and the Auxiliary Hospital. Since then two more modern buildings, a large General Hospital and a large modern school have been erected. His son, Herbert now owns and lives on the farm. He is survived by a son Herbert, three daughters, (Sarah) Mrs. Rev. Wm. Ball, Hughenden, Alta., (Margaret) Mrs. Henry Bailly, Fort Saint John, B.C., (Agnes) Mrs. J. Eaton, Lloydminster, and several grandchildren and great grandchildren. His wife Mary, and two sons, William and Henry predeceased him.

Four nieces, Mrs. H.E. Feun (Blanche Montgomery), Toronto; Mrs. H.N. Brown, Toronto; Mrs. James S. Wilson (Lottie Adams), Frankford; Mrs. C. Tummon (Gertrude Ashley), Stirling, and a nephew, Mr. M.T. Scott, Nanaimo, also survive.

Peel Wees Lead Series

Stirling Peel Wees took a three game lead in their Group Finals against Tweed Friday night, Stirling defeated Tweed on home ice 5-2. The next game of this best four out of seven series was played in Tweed Tuesday. The fifth game if necessary will be played at the local arena this Friday night at 7:30 p.m.

Stirling Edges Tweed Bantams

Stirling Bantams started their Group Finals on the right skate Friday night, edging Tweed 5-4. Cliff Reid led the scoring with two goals assisted by Dale Kleinsteuber, Wayne Andrews, and Jeff Farrell. Jeff Bastardo scored from Mark Dobson while Rob Jones potted a goal from Pat Long. Mark Dobson assisted by Dale Kleinsteuber and Cliff Reid picked up Stirling's other goal.

However, most government licensing offices across the Province will remain open on Saturday, Feb. 24, from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. to assist car owners who cannot purchase their plates during the week.

Many other privately operated licence issuing offices in smaller centres will also extend their hours to cope with the last minute rush.

The deadline for driving with 1972 licence plates is midnight, Feb. 28.

The second game of this best three out of five series will be played Friday night with Stirling travelling to Tweed. The third game will be played in Stirling Monday night at 7 p.m.

Midgets Take Series Lead

Stirling Midgets took the first game of their best three out of five Group Finals from Tweed Monday night 7-4.

Stan Myers led the scoring with three goals assisted by Dave Jeffs, Rob De Jong and Kevin Solmes. Ken Jackett scored two goals assisted by Rob De Jong, Stan Myers and Glen Dettlor. Wally Blakeley and Rob Robinson picked up Stirling's other tallies, unassisted.

The second game of this series was played Tuesday in Tweed with the third game back in Stirling on Monday night at 9 p.m.

Juveniles Open With Frankford

Stirling Juveniles begin their Group Final Series tomorrow night on home ice at 8 p.m. against their neighbors from the south, Frankford. The second game of this best three out of five series will take place Friday night in Stirling at 9 p.m.

Visits Loyalist

Last week the faculty of the Edith Cavell Regional School of Nursing came to dinner at Loyalist College.

The occasion for the visit was to allow President Herbert Young, and Dean of Faculty, Paul King and others in the administration at Loyalist to give an advance welcome to the Edith Cavell group who will officially be joining Loyalist next September.

After Herbert Young introduced the Loyalist Staff, Mrs. Madge Flindall, Director of Edith Cavell reciprocated by introducing her faculty.

Mr. Young made some general welcoming remarks to the effect that he anticipated the transition from Edith Cavell to Loyalist would go smoothly and with a minimum disruption for all concerned.

After dinner, the nursing instructors were taken on a guided tour of the College by Dean King and members of the College nursing faculty.

Women's World Television Born in Muskoka

EDITOR'S NOTE

Let us strive to make the World's Day of Prayer a very significant part of our schedule this year. We speak of the problems of the world today. We can put aside the opportunity to get together and share in our requests for Divine Guidance? This year the World's Day of Prayer will be celebrated in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church March 2nd, at 2 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. F.A. Beeby of Belleville will show slides of India, pictures they took while doing Mission work there. These pictures should bring the theme of the day, "Alert in Our Time," very much to the foreground.

The following story was published by the Bracebridge Gazette January 25th. The writer is a former Provincial Magistrate in Muskoka, and personal friend of the publisher of the News-Argus. The article was provided by local bank manager Dwight Dillabough, who worked in Bracebridge prior to coming to Stirling.

HOCKEY TELEVISION

(By Redmond Thomas, Q.C.) Exactly twenty-one years ago January 25th, 1952, was televised in the United States over the N.B.C. network.

There was then no television station anywhere in Canada.

The game was sponsored jointly by the Bala Lions Club and the Bala Branch of the Canadian Legion in order to raise money for worthy public purposes. All who took part in the event gave their services free. Because the Bracebridge Memorial Community Centre had a greater spectator capacity than the Bala hockey rink, the event was held in Bracebridge and it drew a capacity crowd. As I write, there lies beside me the program brought home by me from the game.

The hockey match was played between two teams of "N.H.L. Old Timers" and was refereed by Fred Decaire of Bala, an experienced official in amateur hockey. It was through friendship with summer visitors influential in hockey that the Bala organization was able to get these former professional stars.

The players were divided into a White Team and a Red Team, the former being coached by Bert Bowfield and the latter by Charlie Watson. (Gordon Sinclair must have set a record by being manager of BOTH teams). The Red Team came from behind to win, 8-5.

Except one from the New Haven Eagles in another professional hockey league, all the players had been scattered among six N.H.L. teams, namely Boston Bruins, Chicago Black Hawks, Detroit Red Wings, Montreal Maroons, New York Americans and Toronto Maple Leafs. (The Maroons and Americans, nicknamed Amerks and with exceptionally colorful star-spangled uniforms, are now long defunct but I have attended games played by each of them).

The WHITE TEAM, captained by Nels Stewart, of the Maroons and with Phil Stein of the Maple Leafs in goal, had as its other members Flash Hollett, Dit Clapper and Yank Boyd, of the Bruins, Roy Conacher of the Black Hawks, Bucko McDonald and Bert Conacher of the Red Wings, Lorne Duguid and Earl Robinson of the Maroons, Jack Draper and Whitney Farrant of the Americans, Windy O'Neil of the Maple Leafs and Billy Marshall of the Eagles.

The RED TEAM, captained

Sand Use Up But Cost Not

A suggestion by district highways engineer, V.A.
Snell at the January session of Hastings county council, that savings might be made in winter road maintenance through more judicious use of sand, hasn't worked out that way.

The roads and bridges committee report, read by chairman Reeve Ray Shortt, indicated that due to freezing rain and ice conditions, sanding of roads has been more costly than in previous years.

However, due to lighter snow accumulation than usual, there has been no problem for the county roads department to keep within its budget for winter control.

The roads report said design for reconstruction of that section of county road 16 from Mitchell Sideroad to the Shannonville gravel was going ahead.

Three other contracts were said in the design stages, these being two sections of county road 8, one from Highway 62 running one mile east and the other, 0.8 mile, at Moira; the urban section of county road 7 in Shannonville from Highway 2 to the Tyendinaga Indian Reserve, and the urban section of county road 16 in Deseronto running from the westerly town limits to Fourth Street and then north to Highway 2.

Farmers Want

Surtax Imposed

An automatic surtax must be put on fruit, vegetable, eggs, and poultry meat imports entering Canada when domestic supply can fill the market, decided delegates at the recent Canadian Federation of Agriculture annual meeting in Ottawa.

"We produce top-quality products, and our farmers deserve to have their produce sold. Who can justify U.S.
fresh strawberries, pears and potatoes on our supermarket shelves - right in the middle of our harvest season? We must be protected from U.S.
surplus produce which has often depressed prices, so our producers are forced to sell for less than the cost of production. It only takes one or two percent of some U.S. products to really hurt us," says Frank Wall, first vice president, Ontario Federation of Agriculture.

This principle will also be stressed in talks with government officials preparing for the up-coming General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) negotiations. Farmers at the CFA meeting insisted that today's tariffs not be lowered until this protective surtax is implemented.

"We will not let our incomes be gambled away at the international bargaining table," says Wall. The resolution, introduced by the OFA, originated from the recent annual meeting of the Ontario Fruit and Vegetable Growers' Association.

Wall is a Norfolk county fresh fruit and asparagus grower from Port Burwell.

"Canadian producers must have the first opportunity to supply the Canadian market.
If imports do come in, they must face an automatic surtax.
This would bring their cost at least equal to our cost of production," says Wall.

He and the other Ontario delegates to the CFA meeting in Ottawa voted to ask the are planned for construction this year with the latter planned for construction in 1974.

A board of directors has been suggested by the Canadian Transport Commission calling for the installation of automatic protection at the C.P.R. crossing on the GRD road. The county's share for the cost of the project will be 12.5 per cent, the figure to be shown later this year in the county roads budget.

Mt. Pleasant Holds Supper

(By Mrs. Percy MacMullen)

On Wednesday evening, Feb. 14, the United Church Women sponsored a Valentine get luck supper at the church hall with 80 men, women and children in attendance. Ross and his family, who had been in the hospital for a long time, all enjoyed a sumptuous meal, and the evening was a success.

The president Mrs. Robert Hoard conducted a short business meeting. It was decided to have a special canvas in the near future to augment the funds.

Miss Brenda Williams, 4-H Club leader presented Margaret Hoard with a 4-H ring as a gift from the U.C.W. Margaret recently completed six club project and won County Honors.

Mrs. Clair Knight opened the musical program with greetings and dedicated the sentimental program to all the mothers in the audience.

Harvey Couch and Ken Bennett and Don Campbell provided special music and also accompanied the assembly singing conducted by Miss Brenda Williams. The songs included "Let me call you Sweetheart," "Put your Hand in the Hand," "I want a Girl," and "Peace like a River."

The junior choir under the direction of Miss Brenda Williams and Mrs. Clair Knight with Miss Margaret Hoard as pianist, sang four selections: "Wedding Bouquet," "Jacob's Ladder," "Let the Whole World Know," and "They'll Know we are Christians."

Brenda Williams read the "Origin of Valentine's Day," and Chelene Willman gave "Roses are Red." A Valentine skit was rendered by Gail Merrick, Jackie Barrett, Laurie Willman and Ann Bailey. A reading, "Mother's Love" was given by Lynn Joslin. A duet was contributed by Kimmy Graff and Linda Hoard.

All the small children were asked to sit with the choir on the stage and they were treated with candy.

The closing number was a reading by Jackie Barrett entitled "Mother," and the closing choir selection was that old favorite "Mother" and the "Good Night Song."

Gifts were presented to Sally, Brenda and Margaret on behalf of the junior choir by Gail Merrick and Jackie Bennett.

Highway 14 Still Will Get Work

The Ontario highways department will rebuild Highway 14 north from Stirling to Marmora within the next five years.

This was made known to Hastings county council members last week in a communication received from Hastings MPP Clarke T. Rollins through the ministry of transportation and communications.

The letter said pre-contract engineering for the first 7.2 miles between Stirling and Marmora area residents have been campaigning for rebuilding of Highway 14 for several years and a year ago the department took the position that it would be reconstructed within five years.

At Wednesday's meeting of county council, Rawdon Reeve Ray Shortt said he had been told by Mr. Rollins that the reconstruction would commence at the northern limits of Stirling near the Legion hall building.

He said there was no mention made of a possible bypass around Stirling.

Mrs. Thos. Bateman, Clerk-Treasurer, Municipality of Marmora & Lake, Box 49, Marmora, Ontario.

Dear Mrs. Bateman:

I am writing with reference to the resolution adopted by your Council, for presentation to the Ontario Good Roads Association at the February Convention, respecting Highway 14 from Marmora to Stirling. It was brought to my attention, as you know, by Mr. G.S. Posen, Director of the Intergovernmental Affairs Secretariat.

A year ago, we took the position that we would reconstruct the section in question to better geometric standards, including a wider pavement, if possible within the ensuing 5 years. We are now actively engaged in pre-contract engineering for the southerly 7.2 miles to Springbrook. The contract will include replacement of the Squire Creek Bridge.

We have reached the stage of knowing what our property requirements are for the project and we shall be making preliminary contacts with concerned owners within the next few weeks. If our schedules are met, we would expect to clear the revised right-of-way, using local day labour, and to arrange relocation of utilities, during winter of 1973-74.

Once a start has been made in such preliminary respects, it can be taken for granted that the actual construction would follow soon after. The work between Springbrook and Marmora would not be likely to follow immediately after completion of the Stirling-Springbrook contract. We have urgent priorities that must take precedence; however, we may reasonably expect that our early 5 year estimate for full completion will not be far out of line.

Yours very truly,
A.T.C. McNabb,
Deputy Minister.

Deputy Reeves Status Studied

Clarke T. Rollins has been given assurance from the Hon. John White, Minister of Treasury, Economics and Intergovernmental Affairs, and his Parliamentary Assistant, Donald Irvine, M.P.P., that legislation will be introduced subject to cabinet approval in this coming session which will give Hastings County Council the authority in deciding the length of time that their Deputy Reeves will remain in County Council up to the first of January, 1975.

During this time legislation will be introduced to amend the present statutes. The present bill as presented by the County's Administrator was not accepted by County Council and was amended by a vote of approximately 40 to 1, the amendment being the extension of one additional year of entitlement for Deputy Reeves to remain in County Council until the end of 1974.

Bata Ski Club Opens New Facilities

Ski divers, sleighs, skates, snowmobiles and distinguished guests featured the special sports day on the slopes of the Batawa Ski on Saturday when they threw the switches to officially start the new mechanical devices including automatic tows and T-bars.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Bata returned from abroad for the event and were joined by government and civic representatives of the Central Ontario area for the special event. Greetings were presented by Jack Ellis M.P. for Hastings riding from the Nation's Capital; Mr. Russell Rowe M.P. and deputy speaker of the house brought greetings from Queen's Park; Mayor H. J. McFarland brought greetings from Prince Edward and Picton; Alderman Porter spoke on behalf of the City of Belleville; and Reeve Gordon Wilman of Sidney spoke for the Township and Hastings County Council.

The ribbon cutting honors were shared by Thomas Bata and Col. Paisley, Base Commander of C.F.B. at Trenton. Hundreds of skiers, snowmobilers, skaters and sleighriders joined in the festivities which lasted throughout the afternoon and evening. Said Mr. Bata, "The spirit of co-operation shown by Club members in establishing these sport facilities is the spirit that builds communities and nations."

The Batawa Ski Club, established some ten years ago, is a nonprofit project, which provides skiing and ski instruction for all ages and groups in the entire Trent Valley area with a membership now reaching well beyond 300. The land and hills were made available by Thomas Bata without cost. The weather made the slopes and trails, the installation of tow equipment and the building of the fine chalet was achieved through the voluntary efforts of members and friends. Skiers of championship calibre have been developed in the Batawa classes of instruction. Brilliant sunshine and good weather made the day one of the most successful in the Club's history. Art Duncan, retired director of Public Relations for the Bata Industries, was master of ceremonies for the day and organization of the events were directed by the club executive under leadership of John Cormack, President.

Jack Bush, former Reeve of Sidney Township speaks with Mrs. Thomas J. Bata at a reception held on Saturday at the Batawa Recreation Centre. The reception was held prior to ribbon cutting ceremonies for a T-Bar, recently installed at the Batawa Ski Club. Also attending the reception from Stirling were Rev. and Mrs. Roy Taylor. Two incidents which may or may not be related are being investigated by provincial police from Belleville this week. They are asking the co-operation of the public in one case to try and locate some stolen property.

Relief Milkman Plan Attempted

In this age when the five-day 40-hour week is an accepted fact for urban workers, one of the major complaints of their rural cousins, the dairymen, is that they are tied to their job seven days a week.

But good news for the hard-working cow custodians: there is a move afoot at the Stirling Agricultural Office that could see the milking chores looked after while the owner enjoys a weekend away from the farm.

The idea is known as a relief milking service suggested at the Hastings Farm Women's conference last November. The Stirling agricultural office has been asked to assist in co-ordinating such a service in the county.

In this month's HAST-AGRI-COM, the monthly newsletter compiled at the Stirling office, T. Wayne Martin outlined the proposed milking service and has distributed a questionnaire to determine how many farmers might be interested.

Mr. Martin suggests that there are probably many sons on the farm with their father who would be able to do some part time milking for a neighbor wanting to get away for a few days.

Also, there may be young people in high school with farm experience who might be available for weekend milking.

Another possibility is that retired or semi-retired dairymen might be available to occasionally assist in a milking service.

A list of relief milkers and a list of dairymen requesting such a service might be put together. If this can be done, dairymen wishing a day or so away from the farm could contact a relief milker and be on his way, knowing the home-stead chores were in competent hands.

Interested dairymen and possible relief milkers are asked to contact the Stirling office.

Although new in the Quinte area, the relief milking service program has been in use in Stormont County for some months.

Stirling Horticulture holds meeting

(By Mrs. Percy MacMullen)

On Monday afternoon, Feb. 19th, 38 women and two men attended the monthly meeting of Stirling Horticultural Society in St. John's Anglican Church hall. Mrs. Floyd Armstrong opened the meeting with the usual prayers and a welcome to all.

Mrs. W. Haggerty provided a large root of a Sansevieria plant with a stalk of blossoms. This was placed on the president's table for the meeting and then given to a member, Mrs. Jack Doran read the January minutes and the correspondence.

Mrs. Grant Hubble gave the financial statement and said

Watch Out

If you are driving on one of the provincial highways after a snow storm, watch for the Department of Highways snow removal vehicles. Such vehicles carry a flashing blue light, so watch for it. It is a warning. Always use extra care and caution when approaching or passing a snow clearance vehicle. Remember snow plows and sanders use plenty of room for their work.

EMERGENCY VEHICLE REMINDER: When you hear a police, fire, ambulance or public utility emergency siren or if one of these vehicles approaches you with the red flashing light on the roof, the law requires that you bring your vehicle to a stop as near the right hand curb as possible.

possibilities of enlarging this lagoon system, then told the hearing about the proposed new holding area to be added to the present two lagoons. The proposal was made to obtain approximately 25 acres of land south of the present lagoon, being part of the farm owned by Clarence Chard. The new proposed lagoon would be approximately 13 acres in size with an approximate 6 ft. high dyke around the pond. He explained that the old two pond lagoon would be drained and the centre dyke be removed to make it one holding pond and the new lagoon to make the second holding area. This would drain from the old pond to the new one. He stressed that the receiving creek known locally as Mud Creek was a very small creek and that especially in the summer time, it was not large enough to receive effluent from a lagoon on a continuous basis. This is why he has designed the new one to be a holding lagoon whereas the effluent would only be left out

The following is a report of some of the comments and questions heard by the board members from the Ministry of the Environment chaired by Mr. Moore. He opened the meeting stating that this public hearing was called to hear the reasons why the Stirling Lagoon system should be enlarged and to give residents of the Village of Stirling and surrounding community an opportunity to voice their opinion for or against the enlargement of this lagoon.

Play Opens Two Week Run

Bertolt Brecht's play with music, "Mother Courage and her Children," due to open at the Pinnacle Theatre on Feb. 28, for a two-week run, has turned out to be the Belleville Theatre Guild's most difficult-to-produce project ever.

The play, using music, lighting effects, sound effects and pictures to help the actors create its moods, is the moving story of Mother Courage, a woman who makes her living by following the armies in the Thirty Years' War in Europe and selling goods to the soldiers. Despite many fine qualities, Mother Courage pays dearly for her economic dependence upon militarism. One by one her three children are caught in the trap of war. Each eventually dies a violent death and Mother Courage is left alone.

Despite the final tragedy, the play has its comic moments. This variety of moods is ably captured by a fine group of Guild actors, headed by Diane Coyne of Belleville and directed by Jim Alexander of Trenton. It's a special occasion for these two people - a change from the comedy and light romantic roles that have become Diane's specialty as an actress with the London Little Theatre and the Belleville troupe, and the fulfillment of a long-standing wish for

Jim, who has dreamed of directing this play since he first saw it.

Among the many production difficulties are the making of armor, helmets, and homespun clothes for the players; the building of a wagon of that era which will fit onto the available stage area; and the make-up demands of the very varied cast of 22 characters.

Dates for "Mother Courage" are February 28 - March 3 and March 7 - 10. Because the action of the play begins among the audience and in the aisles rather than on the stage, people are advised to be seated by 7:55 p.m. for the play's 8 p.m. start. Ticket details may be obtained by phoning the theatre.

very obvious smells from the lagoon and also the pollution of the streams which ran through the existing farms and then into Rawdon creek and finally into the Trent River.

A petition was also registered from some of the residents of the Valley and community south of Stirling stating their disagreement with any future proposed lagoon because of land values being severely devaluated, odors, pollution of the streams and waterways, cattle not being able to drink the water from this creek and the general visible sight of the lagoon.

Mr. Chard registered a letter to the hearing as he was not able to be present, saying he was much against the proposed expansion because of odors, land depreciation, pollution and for health reasons such as an outbreak of typhoid fever. He also stated that his land was not for sale for this proposed lagoon expansion.

Mr. Moode then turned the meeting open to questions and comments from the floor. Mr.

Anderson was questioned as to the increase proposal of 2000 people which only represented an addition of 500 new people. He was also questioned as to the status of the area which was not presently hooked into the system as that would represent a good portion of the increase of population. He replied that it would include the people who are not served by the system now and be adequate for a total population of 2000. He also was questioned as to where they could expand further if an industry should locate in Stirling but did not give anything definite as to what would happen at that time. It was suggested that a treatment plant be built on the Rawdon creek as some 90% of the village drains by gravity into Rawdon creek so as much of the pumping activities could be eliminated and that the flow of Rawdon creek is much greater and could receive effluent which could be fully treated by a modern plant. It was commented that a treatment plant on Rawdon creek could be much easier expanded and do a better job than expanding piece meal to a lagoon system.

The question was raised about the pumping of raw sewage from the man hole located on Henry St. near the arena directly into Rawdon creek which has been taking place for the second year. This has been reported to the Ministry and to the Department of Health on many occasions but to this date nothing has been done. Mr. Anderson stated that this was an additional problem being looked at separately. He stated that they were checking to see if there pumps would force the sewage through the existing lines which are presently overloaded, or whether additional lines would have to be installed from here to the lagoon as these are forced mains from this station.

The question was raised again about the future lagoons when this present lagoon was installed 14 years ago it was sold to the people with the idea there would be no problems for many years. One person stated that of the 14 years existence almost half of the years the odors have existed at numerous times. Another person stated that he had tried to sell some property which the creek runs through and stated that as soon as the lagoon came into the picture with its pollution and smells the deal was all off. Another farmer stated that if this proposed lagoon was built that the 13 or 15 acres of pond and dyke would block off much of the natural drainage to his farm. Mr. Anderson stated that a drainage ditch would be built around the outside of the dyke for this purpose.

It was stated by Mr. Brown of the board that many lagoon systems are now working properly in Ontario but the feeling of many residents from this area who were present felt that a sewage plant properly installed on Rawdon creek would be on a more sound economical and benefit to all the people in this area of which everyone could be proud.

No one will disagree that something has to be done. The present system is definitely much overloaded due to inflations from drains from basements, roadways and roofs, etc., which all add to the overflow. Much of the village is still not hooked into the system. The present lagoon system consists of two holding ponds which have in both cases overflow pipes through their dikes. Some 90% of the effluent now drains from the first pond through its overflow to the marsh swamp land which the creek runs through and finally goes into Rawdon creek south of Malory's Apartments on Highway #33. Any resident of Stirling should examine for themselves where this effluent now goes and anyone wishing to smell the aroma should drive down #33 highway some cold crisp still night about 10 o'clock or after and get first hand information.

Mr. Moode said the board would make its recommendations in two weeks from the date of the hearing to the deputy ministry for his decision.

Faith Unit

Faith Unit of St. Paul's United Church Women met at the church on Tuesday, Feb. 20, 1973, 28 ladies attended, welcomed at the door by Mrs. F. Wood, Mrs. C. Fitchett opened the meeting with a quotation about the Lord looking on the inner heart. All sang "Come Let Us Sing of a Wonderful Love" followed by prayer, and a short reading to the effect that "the who makes no mistakes makes nothing at all", and usually the loudest critics are those who do the least.

Business included reports and announcements. 31 visits were made during the month. Three ladies contributed to the Birthday Barrel, and pennies were gathered for The Mile. The World Day of Prayer was announced for March 2 at the Presbyterian Church. Recipes were collected for the Cook Book about to be published and sold. Old glasses, empty spoons, thread and ends of wool, and used postage stamps were asked for, for various purposes.

A worship service was led by Mrs. W. Fitchett and Mrs. B. Bateman, opening with a few lines about the bravery of "smiling through tears". The hymn, "O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee" was sung, and a Scripture passage from Matthew 5 read, Prayer followed, with all joining in the Lord's Prayer. Two short stories were read, illustrative of "leaving lights on" for posterity, and forgiveness for the straying. The offering was dedicated, and the singing of a verse of "Bless Be the Tie that Binds" closed the period.

A film on India was presented by Mrs. W. McMullen, showing how the Christian Medical College and training hospital at Velore are influencing the rural life around in nutrition, child care, control of epidemics, family planning, and general living conditions. It also showed how they are so often frustrated by apathy, superstition, and ignorance. Questions for discussion followed, Canada has one doctor for 700 people.

The meeting closed with the hymn, "More Love to Thee O Christ", and prayer led by Mrs. Fitchett.

A social time followed and Mrs. M. Brockhouse made a few thanks to all who took part in the meeting and served the tea.

CUB OPEN HOUSE

Oh! what a perfect day Saturday was to a group of little boys.

The boys turned out at 10:30 excited and ready to set up their many displays.

They took turns picketing Front street, not to protest, but to get everyone to come and look at their work and try their coffee and cookies.

The day started very slow, but the afternoon brought a very large variety of people.

As the people came in, the boys explained what each project was. Our Toymakers display was very large and we even had a real live pet display - a puppy and a hamster.

We had a special spot marked out for our card tables. A cub was assigned to each table to serve the coffee and cookies. It went off without even an accident. We were all just like real waiters.

We know we made our Cub leaders happy and proud because they said it was very satisfying and that is what being a Cub leader is really all about.

Next year we will have an even bigger and better Open House and we hope everyone will come.

Another Load?

Generally speaking, the public is aware of recent applications of the Bell Canada authorities for an increased rate structure, including raising of installation charges to about double what they are now in a graduated scale. The basic reasons advanced were additional required revenue and to offset this, increased operating costs, especially wages which are the biggest expense in any business.

Just last week there was an incident in connection with the relocation of the News-Argus telephone facilities which indicates that some additional study might find ways to reduce costs, which are certainly adequate at the moment, compared with other service work.

To do the installation of the equipment at the new premises, an installer spent about two hours, perhaps slightly more, for which the company will receive more money than most working people receive in a day. While that cost may seem high, consider that instead of spending about an additional 15 minutes to disconnect the units in the former premises, another man arrived in the afternoon, presumably from Belleville to do this work. While there is no charge for disconnecting, there was a man's time utilised for at least an hour, which might have been better spent.

Time is the most precious commodity we have today, and the most judicious use of time by employees is the largest factor in efficient production. Should it not also follow in service work?

Load Restrictions Take Effect In Ontario

With the harsh winter weather conditions and the heavy volume of truck traffic on Ontario's road network, it is necessary each year during the Spring break-up period for the Ministry of Transportation and Communications and the Municipal Road Authorities to restrict vehicle loads on certain roads.

In southern Ontario this situation occurs during the months of March and April and extends over a three month period from March through May in Northern parts of the Province.

During this period loaded axle weights of commercial vehicles using roads designated for half-load restrictions are limited to 10,000 lbs. on each axle, which is half of the maximum axle load permitted during the rest of the year.

In 1971 changes were made to the Highway Traffic Act to place the restriction on individual axles rather than on the gross load on the vehicle, thereby permitting reasonable pay loads providing the vehicle has sufficient wheels to distribute the load and still keep within a safe level.

In the past few years the number of roads affected by the half load restriction has been reduced considerably and most of the main long distance highways and freeways are free of the restriction.

Local weather and road conditions determine the length of time the restriction will be in effect and authorities try to keep this to a minimum within these considerations.

Half load restrictions are necessary because winter temperatures cause the water in the road base to freeze resulting in heaving of the road surface. In some types of soil the freezing temperatures create enough suction to draw water from the unfrozen ground below forming ice lenses in the soil and causing even larger heaves in the pavement surface.

Conversely, thawing of the pavement from the surface downward releases water into the road base and because of the frozen ground below, this water is trapped. The accumulated water together with the looser state of the soil and road base material as a result of heaving, weakens the

Keeping it clean with Bill Dodds

IS IT WORTH IT?
I was talking with four attractive young housewives a few days ago, all of them deeply involved in the Unionville recycling depot.

Once a week, with the assistance of about 20 other volunteers, they open the doors of a two-car garage on Main Street. And a steady stream of cars from around town and from other communities - Thornhill, Stouffville, Markham - pull up in front of the doors. The drivers unload bundles of paper, and cartons of bottles and cans.

They get more paper than anything else - about six to eight tons a month. When they have enough material for a truckload, they have a market for it.

Working on a limited scale, with volunteer labor, they have made a successful recycling operation - successful enough so that groups in other communities in the area are thinking about depots of their own.

At this point, they are taking stock of what they have accomplished and asking, "Where do we go from here?"

It's not an easy question to answer. They have toyed with the idea of separate collection by color, but a volunteer said, "We get a much better quality garbage with the depot." And she's right. People willing to deliver their separated waste to a depot are willing to take the time and separate it properly.

They have taken some steps to approach their regional government to develop municipal involvement but this is just a start in this direction. And there's one question that, I think, comes sooner or later to any volunteer engaged in recycling - Is it worthwhile?

A certain amount of realistic pessimism has to develop as a volunteer learns of experiments in municipal garbage grinding with mechanical separation of the components of waste, and as he studies the relative costs of recycling and disposal methods.

And if discouragement sets in, the inevitable conclusion is that the volunteer project is a dead-end street.

But the point to remember

OFA Unhappy With Budget

"The budget announced by John Turner, the Minister of Finance contained reference to several items of major concern to farmers," said Frank Wall, 1st Vice-President of O.F.A., to a Board of Directors meeting held on Feb. 20, 1973. Mr. Wall indicated that the provisions made regarding farm transfers between father and son being exempt from capital gains tax, the capital gains tax on quota rights, the inventory account concept regarding basic herd plans, and the unilateral reduction or removal of tariffs on fruits and vegetables, animals and meats were unacceptable to farmers in their present form. The Board of Directors unanimously supported Wall's position and passed a resolution demanding that tariff reductions not be implemented until reciprocal reductions for exports can be negotiated. The Board also instructed O. F. A. and each member of the Board to contact their M.P. to protest the inadequate measures contained in the budget regarding taxing of quota rights, farm transfers and the reinstatement of basic herd capital assets. "I have sent telegrams to the Leaders of all parties in the House and the Minister of Finance indicating our support for C.F.A.'s identical position on these matters which were mailed to all members of the House," said Mr. Wall. "I urge all concerned farmers to express their displeasure to their own M.P. as soon as possible," he concluded.

On Feb. 22 about 100 people came "as they were" and enjoyed a "Pot Luck" dinner in the Sunday School hall at Bethel. After clean up chores, the ladies held a worship service program, and business session.

The president, Mrs. E. Ketchen welcomed visitors and members, and reminded all of the purpose and function of the United Church Women. The roll call was answered by a verse containing the word "dedicate." There were 26 members and visitors, also three small children present.

Mrs. M. Wickens led in the worship service. The scrip-

Bush Suggests Office Relocated

Offices of the Lower Trent Region Conservation Authority may move to vacant facilities in the municipal building in Frankford.

At least, that was the well-received recommendation of former Sidney Township reeve Jack Bush at the annual authority meeting here Monday night.

Mr. Bush suggested Frankford as an alternative to temporary quarters now in Campbellford. He said since the boundaries of the conservation authority have extended further east, a more central locale for offices is necessary.

"These facilities are handed to all concerned, with room for adequate files and a board meeting room," Mr. Bush's recommendation will be forwarded to the proper subcommittee for consideration.

4-H Club meets

On Feb. 15 the first meeting of the Mount Pleasant 4-H Club took place in the Home Ec. room of Stirling Senior Public School. There were 11 people at the meeting. That night we chose these officers: President, Joanne Hearn; Vice President, Cathy Grills; Treasurer, Joanne Heath; Press Reporter, Linda Hoard.

That night our leaders Miss Brenda Williams and Mrs. Marion Sharpe showed us how to do flat felled seams and French seams. We then attempted to do them for samples in our books.

At the second meeting we chose our covers designed by Joanne Hearn. We will use this for our books. The girls also pinned on and cut out their patterns.

Kingston Lobby Gets Big Event

Hastings county has lost out to bid to host the International Plowing Match in 1977. Instead, the match will go to Frontenac, which hasn't been the site of the big match for more than 30 years.

Hastings last year bid for the 1977 match at the association convention in Toronto and its bid was again repeated this year by Kenneth Munby of Radown township, representing the Hastings County Plowmen's Committee. Kent county also had a bid in for the 1977 match.

Frontenac County's application was a last-minute entry, but the Kingston committee made certain that its request was heard.

A full busload made the trip to Toronto, supporting the application with hoopla bands and a presentation outlining the press media facilities which would be available to publicize the event.

Hastings county was host for the International Plowing match in 1961, the five-day event being staged at the Clarence and Arthur Vermilyea farms immediately north of the city.

The evening was brought to a close in the usual way.

Carl Bateman is Director

Hastings county clerk administrator Carl E. Bateman has been appointed director of the Association of Municipalities of Ontario, the organization which Dr. J. Russell Scott as Belleville mayor headed last year.

Mr. Bateman said he was informed of his appointment by Ottawa Mayor Pierre Bouché, who was named to succeed Dr. Scott as association president.

The appointment of Mr. Bateman as director continues representation from the Quinte district on the AMO.

BOWLING NEWS

Merrie Bowlers

The Merrie ones are sure pushing hard these days being to wind up the year in good standing. It was terrific this time over 200 games.

Ruth Glover had a 24 which was the high single. Helton had a 226, 237 which helped to give her the high total of 657. Helena Oosting had 204, Mildred Fraser 215, Tillie Pres 215, 227; Ruby Tompkins, 224, 230; Isabel Hutcheon, 220; Betty Hubble, 213, 202; Isabel Heasman, 211; Lorna Wrightman, 219. Right here we'll add that last week Tillie Pres's 203, and 204; didn't make Hutcheon's 207.

The Bell Ringers had trips this week all right. Helton, Oosting (a Belle), Betty Hubble (a Mead) have pushed their average to 178. The Dingbats just can't make a show like that. However, they are still boasting Ruth Glover's high single of 24 and high triple 699 which she rolled the 2nd day of this year. Everyone's trying but as yet can't match those scores.

This week Bessie Hewton's Dingbats and Lorna Wrightman's Meatheds each scored 7 points.

Mildred Fraser's Dingbats and Isabel Hutcheon's Belles just had to face the "O" hour. The standing now is Dingbats, 93; Meatheds, 84; Belles 78 and the Dingbats' talking of putting those Dingalings on drugs - "gonna drag them over the carpet."

Ladies League

On Feb. 21 the Wanderers were 5 to 2 winners over the Y's and the Strugglers were also 5 to 2 winners over the Chasems.

Present point standings are:

Wanderers	114
Strugglers	103
Chasems	76
Y's	43

Betty Hubble and Joan McLean are tied for high average with 178.

In the "A" group Sylvia Edgar took both high single of 264 and high triple of 654.

In the "B" group Betty Johnston took high single with 215 and Shirley Floud had high triple with 502.

Other good games were bowled by Shirley Floud 195, Joan McLean 191, Gladys McAllister 197, Sylvia Edgar 193 and 197, Connie Donohoe 195, Vicky Fox 218, Grace Donohoe 211, 214, and 191, Marilyn Haggerty 231 and Shirley Wilson, 214.

Energetic Ladies League

On Friday afternoon, Feb. 23rd the Hep Cats took all 7 points from the Green Lights Points between the Happy Faces and the Bottoms Up are still not completed.

"A" group (average 160 and up) - Irene Hogle had her best score this season with games of 246, 223 and 203 (672) for high single and triple.

Other good games were Lenora West 245, 204; Verna Woodbeck 205, 199; Elsie O'Brien 222; and June Wilcox 200.

Hydro Union Hikes Dues

The members of the Ontario Hydro Employees' Union today approved an increase in dues of $1.00 per week by a majority of 53%.

5236 ballots were cast in favour of the increase, 4,708 against, and 92 ballots were spoiled. 84% of the membership cast ballots.

The referendum on a dues increase was recommended by the Executive Board in order to pay off a $760,000 debt incurred during the last month strike last summer.

Because of rising costs, additional funds were also needed to carry on normal business and institute new programs deemed necessary following the strike.

As a result of the vote, the Union will now be out of debt by the middle of 1974 as opposed to 1973 had the increase not been approved.

It is one of the few com-

the most advanced medical

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

THE TORONTO SUN SYNDICATE

Elizabeth is five and extremely pretty with blue eyes, brown hair and fair skin. Her background is Scottish.

This child is in good general health but was born with cerebral palsy (lack of muscle control) which handicaps her only mildly.

Her balance is poor, she walks awkwardly and has limited use of her right hand. She wears orthopedic boots because of flat feet and to help her walking.

Despite these difficulties Elizabeth is very active and plays all the games other children do. She has a tricycle and manages it well. Her hand is more helpful to her than she realizes because she can use it when reminded and when on a swing she holds the ropes with both hands. She goes to the Crippled Children's Centre about every three months for assessment and has one exercise to do at home.

Elizabeth goes to senior kindergarten in the afternoons. She is considered to be a slow learner but her foster mother says she is keeping up with her classmates.

Elizabeth has a good memory. She comes home full of eager stories about school and likes to sing school songs and commercials heard on television and radio.

An affectionate child, Elizabeth is accustomed to much attention from her foster parents and their three older children.

She needs a loving home where her limitations will be accepted and where the parents will be happy to work closely with a medical team in the interests of helping their adopted daughter.

To inquire about adopting Elizabeth, please write to Today's

Child, Box 888, Station K, Toronto M4P 2H2. For general

adoption information, please contact your local Children's Aid Society.
